DISTRICT PREPARES TO GREET LANDON

Will Be Center Of Great Interest On Saturday

The house at 410 Main street, West Middlesex, where Governor Alf Landon, Republican nominee for president, was born in 1887, has become a point of national interest. Today it is occupied by the Rev. Henry Schilling, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. In 1887 it was occupied by the Rev. Herman Mossman, pastor of the same church, when his daughter, Anne Landon, bore a boy baby named Alfred. During his stay at West Middlesex Saturday, Governor Landon will make a visit at the home.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 21.—Pleading for a dispassionate decision on the issues of the campaign, Governor Alfred M. Landon today appealed to the American people to take a real interest in their local, state and federal governments in order to be well governed.

Speaking before 800 Republican leaders from Nebraska and Iowa at a breakfast conference, the Republican nominee added:

"We want government to do its full share in protecting us and helping us to meet our necessities. But we do not want government to jeop-

WEST MIDDLESEX AND NEW CASTLE READY

Thousands To Gather At Mercer County Town To Hear Address Opening Campaign On Saturday—Great Host To Attend Banquet Here In Evening As Governor Landon Testimonial—Arrangements Are Complete

Flags and bunting flying, huge sunflowers smiling down from the cross arms of light poles, posters and decorations in the store windows and a general air of pleasant anticipation announce to the world today that New Castle is ready for the visit of Governor Alfred M. Landon, on Saturday.

Half a dozen different committees have been functioning at top speed, three sets of headquarters in the Castleton Hotel have been directing operations and as far as it is humanly possible to be ready, New Castle is ready to welcome the Republican candidate for president.

Insofar as the prominence of the visitors is concerned the Landon Day visitors will be tops. Men and women of national prominence in the Republican party are arriving today, the cream of the country's news writers are arriving and more will come with the Landon special, wire services are setting up headquarters and the Castleton Hotel looks like the national headquarters of the Republican party.

Robert M. Owthwaite, representing the national Republican committee who has had general supervision of the arrangements for the rally in West Middlesex on Saturday today made public the program for the rally.

The Landon special will arrive in West Middlesex at about one thirty in the afternoon. At twelve-thirty the official motor escort of 50 cars will leave the Castleton Hotel headed for West Middlesex. This motor escort will wait at the West Middlesex station for the arrival of the Landon special and escort the guests on the train to the Tam-O-Shanter golf course. This motor delegation will be headed by State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor and Lawrence County Chairman Roger W. Rowland.

Program At Stand

The program at the speaking stand on the Tam O'Shanter course will start at two thirty o'clock. At that time there will be Commun-

In the later edition, the address of Governor Landon, feature of the meeting at West Middlesex, and other later news will be presented.

HITLER DIRECTING GERMAN FLEET IN SPANISH WATERS

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—From his home on an Alpine peak above Obersalzburg, Reichfuehrer Adolf Hitler today is personally directing the movements of the German war fleet in Spanish waters or on the way there.

Admiral General Erich Raeder, the Reich naval minister, and other members of the naval general staff, are at his side and the commanders of the two German squadrons, Rear Admiral Rolf Carls, now in the Mediterranean, and Rear Admiral Boehm, en route, were instructed to maintain constant touch with Hitler.

(Special To The News)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—The lake formed by Boulder Dam is definitely changing the climate of a large area in two states. Data gathered by air transport pilots in the course of their regular flights establish the existence of a great body of cool, damp air, mushrooming upward and outward from the impounded water.

This is more important news for Americans than the cables from Spain. It foreshadows what may be done by a consistent state and national program of storing water in ponds and lakes in the Great Plains and other semi-arid regions. It ought to change Mr. Tugwell's supercilious attitude toward the pond building project which originated in Kansas and is spreading through neighboring states.

Dispatches relate how Mr. Tugwell was met by a raven that is the sole surviving inhabitant of a ruined farmstead in the dust bowl. If he listens carefully the professor may hear a word of warning on New Deal crop destruction from this wise old bird. The poet Poe heard it, in quite another connection, and wrote a fine poem about it.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Uncle Sam provides some real spiffy looking cars for his employes. Pa Newc observed a nice immaculate white car, bearing the inscription "Interstate Commerce Commission, Bureau of Motor Carriers," passing through the city this morning.

Pa Newc's town is certainly being dolled up for the stay of Governor Landon over the week-end.

And by the way, New Wilmington is also going to have some little traffic problem of its own with the West Middlesex traffic tomorrow. But the town officials are making arrangements to handle the situation properly.

State highway department workmen were busy the past few days putting the finishing touches to the state highways in the vicinity of West Middlesex for the record traffic expected on Saturday.

Practically every gasoline station in this entire district has been filled to the limit in expectation of a heavy demand for gas over the week-end. They are taking no chances on the supply running low.

New Castle residents will greatly aid traffic movement through the city by keeping their cars out of the downtown area during the rush hours Saturday afternoon and evening.

If you know the side roads leading to West Middlesex from New Castle, it would be a good idea to use them for your trip to the Mercer county town tomorrow, and allow the use of the main highways for strangers who will be travelling through this city and county.

No damage was done by Wednesday's storm at Camp Phillips, the director, Miss Audrelle Lynch, tells Pa Newc.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—In the face of increasing pressure, the United States government today emphatically re-affirmed its determined stand of non-interference in Spain's bloody conflict.

In terms that left no room for equivocation, it rejected the Uruguayan proposal that American countries join together to mediate the civil war.

"This country is committed to the principle of non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries," Acting Secretary of State William Phillips reminded the Uruguayan minister, Jose Richling.

Phillips called attention to the instructions sent American diplomatic and consular representatives in Spain and adjoining countries early this month.

Says Landon To Sweep New York

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 21. — Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, eastern division campaign manager for the Republicans, today predicted that Gov. Alfred M. Landon will carry New York state by at least 400,000 votes in November.

"It is a little early for exact figures," he said, "but on the basis of surveys made so far I think I am safe in saying we will lead upstate by 800,000.

"Coming down to the Bronx line with that margin we will easily offset a possible Democratic lead of 400,000 in New York City."

The dead were Miss Margaret Armstrong, 19, of Rome, N. Y., and George A. Songer, 31, of Syracuse. Carlton Armstrong, 17, Miss Armstrong's brother, was pulled from the burning car by troopers.

Troopers awakened by the crash ran to the scene but the flames drove them back from the front of the car where the two were burned to death. The boy was in the back seat.

Rebel Gen. Queipo De Llano's assertion over the Seville radio today that insurgents control 32 of Spain's 50 provinces conforms on the whole with reports from all other sources. Loyalists holdings are in southeastern Spain, Catalonia, and on the fringe of the Bay of Biscay.

With reinforcements rushing in hourly from Barcelona, the Loyalist, making their second attack on the island, have stretched their front across 50 miles, and shell-fire from the Loyalist battleship Almirante Miranda blasted to bits a rebel troop column in 30 trucks, Madrid asserted.

Farley And Other Party Leaders Discuss Strategy Of Campaign

PLANS FOR SWING ACROSS CONTINENT

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 21.—While Governor Alfred M. Landon was swinging east on his initial speaking tour, President Roosevelt today speeded up plans of his own for meeting the Republican campaign threat.

Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley and other party leaders were to have dinner at Hyde Park tonight and spend the evening discussing strategy.

It was understood an itinerary carrying the president across country and into all of the Pacific coast states was to be taken up. Tentatively, this trip will be made late in September or early in October.

Democratic leaders expected Mr. Roosevelt to make approximately six major speeches over a nation-wide broadcast between now and election day. His advisers are unanimous in urging him to use his excellent radio voice to the best and most frequent advantage.

State Convention Of American Legion In Session At Johnstown

SENATOR DAVIS MAKES ADDRESS

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 21.—Using the theme "Americanism" as a vehicle, the 18th annual convention, Pennsylvania department, American Legion, was well under way here today following a rousing address by Past National Commander Edward A. Hayes of Decatur, Ill.

Hayes warned the state legionnaires that a "besmirching war" was in the offing against future activities of the legion. He said the attack he believed coming would "include the inference the legion is advocating unrestricted pensions for all who served in the world war."

"Those who insist upon the facts will not be misled," he said. "The legion has never advocated general pensions."

Concluding, Hayes said:

"Derision of those who wore the uniform serves to destroy that patriotism so necessary if we are to retain the constitutional liberties guaranteed under our system of government."

Speaking in the absence of Gov. George H. Earle, United States Senator James J. Davis pledged his vote in the senate for the payment of all just claims upon the government by the former soldiers. This, he explained, included hospitalization, widows' claims, orphans' claims and payment of pensions in old age.

Meanwhile Walter Krebs, Johnstown publisher, appeared to be the man favored for next state commander.

GOVERNOR TO SPEAK ON AMERICANISM

ardize our birthright of freedom or mortgage that equality of opportunity towards which we are striving.

Campaign Of Education

"I have said before that every national campaign is a campaign of education. I hope and believe that the one upon which we are now entering will be no exception.

"Vital issues are at stake—issues that concern every American family and every American home. That is why their discussion should arouse the deepest interest in cities and towns, at the cross-roads and on the farms. As the American people inform themselves and make up their own minds the election will be decided. All of us will cheerfully accept the verdict of the great jury of the people."

Landon left for his train immediately after the conference, to resume his eastward journey across Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois and Ohio to officially inaugurate his presidential campaign with a major speech at West Middlesex, Pa., his birthplace, Saturday afternoon. He also will deliver major addresses at Chautauqua, N. Y., Monday night and at Buffalo next Wednesday night.

Tumultuous Reception

The Republican nominee was given enthusiastic greetings on his journey east from a brief vacation in the Colorado Rockies. He was given a tumultuous reception here and left with the blessing of a group of prominent Jeffersonian Democrats.

William Ritchie, prominent Omaha lawyer, life-long Democrat, one-time candidate for lieutenant governor of Nebraska and a cousin of the late Maryland governor, speaking for the group said:

"I am going to support Governor Landon with everything at my command. I believe in him because he stands for sound and fundamental principles and is socially minded. He will bring about those reforms which the people want without destroying American institutions."

On his swing east, Landon sounded two political chords that brought hearty endorsement from crowds in a score of cities and towns. He declared a "man can be a liberal without being a spendthrift," and attacked "must legislation" as contrary to the American theory of constitutional government.

Urges Republican Congress

In presenting these issues, the governor made no direct appeal for votes for himself. Instead he constantly urged his listeners to elect a Republican congress. Scores of congressional candidates traveled with him through their districts and applauded his appeal.

The governor's luck as a "rain bearer" held out on his long trip across Colorado and Nebraska. Everywhere he stopped to speak, there was rain just before or just after his visit. At Columbus, Nebr., it was the first rain in a month. At Schuyler, Nebr., it rained for the first time in seven weeks. At Fremont, Nebr., his speech was interrupted by a sudden storm. He reached Omaha just after a deluge.

"I always bring rain on my campaign trips in the grain belt," the governor observed with a smile.

To Speak Enroute

Leaving here at 10 A.M. (CST) Landon's itinerary for the day called for rear-end appearance from his train in Council Bluffs, Carroll, Boone, Ames, Marshalltown, Cedar Rapids and Clinton, Iowa, Sterling, Dixon and Dekalb, Ills. At Cedar Rapids and Dixon, he will leave the train to speak to Republican rallies from platforms along the tracks.

Tomorrow, his schedule calls for stops at Lima, Ada, Bucyrus, Crestline, Mansfield and Canton, Ohio before his arrival at West Middlesex, Pa., at 1:30 P.M. He will speak at the Tam O'Shanter Golf Club, just outside his birthplace at 3 P.M. His subject will be Americanism.

battleship Oklahoma and the cruiser Quincy, together with the German pocket battleship Deutschland and other forign warships, left Palma. The Oklahoma steamed to Barcelona and the Quincy to Malaga.

Two troop ships are shuttling between Majorca and Barcelona, while the Almirante Miranda, three destroyers, and a submarine are supporting the Loyalists.

Estimate 1200 Killed

(A Reuters agency message from Palma, sent Tuesday but received in London only today, estimated the Loyalist expeditionary force's losses in fight Sunday and Monday at between 1200 and 1300, of which 100 were killed Monday.)

Rebel sources also asserted that an airplane staged a surprise raid on the loyalist warships at Minorca, forcing all to withdraw.

Loyalists opened a vigorous counter-offensive today on the San Sebastian-Irun front, aided heavy artillery bombardment of the rebel attackers, and out of the day's series of conflicting claims it became apparent that stiff fighting was going on on three other far-flung sectors.

The government's account of the "annihilation" of a rebel column near Talavera De La Reina, 60 miles west of Toledo and 80 miles southwest of Madrid, revealed for the first time a wide encircling movement by the army of Gen. Emilio Mola.

The rebels claimed a victory on the same front, so all that is clear is that Mola's men swept clear around from the Guadarrama sectior north of Madrid, in an attempt to releive the rebels beleaguered in the Alcazar at Toledo.

Rebels Nearly Surround Madrid

If the rebels succeed, Madrid will be three-fifths surrounded.

Nevertheless the Spanish war minister after a meeting of the cabinet in Madrid, declared: "the enemy has been prevented from crossing the Sierra Guadarrama. They have not passed and never will. Today marks the beginning of the end for them."

The Saragossa sector, where the Catalonian Loyalist forces are trying to expand westward, also brought word of government triumphs.

A Loyalist column is reported to have captured Torrealta and Jacinto, 18 miles from Teruel, and government planes are said to have set fire to the town of Belchite. South of Saragossa, with incendiary bombs.

Barcelona reported that Loyalists were bombarding the rebels surrounded in Huesca.

Heavy engagements were recorded near the Portuguese frontier east of Badajoz, where Loyalists are understood to be holding the troops of Gen. Francisco Franco in check after they succeeded in broadening their connecting territory between the south and north.

ficial statement today that Madrid had given "complete satisfaction" for the killing of four Germans near Barcelona early in the civil strife. Whether any indemnity was paid was not stated.

Speeding at 25 knots, following Germany's protest to Spain over the Kamerun affair and Admiral Carls' "force will be met with force" warning, the replacement squadron, led by the flagship Graf Spee, was believed to have passed through the English channel during the night, and is now racing southward along the French coast.

As the seven new ships near menacing Spanish points, where they will pause to evacuate Germans and other foreigners, anxiety developed in naval circles here lest floating mines drifting from a Spanish port should cause another "incident".

Perilous Situation.

So perilous is the situation now, that Germany must exercise extreme caution, officials said, not to allow herself to be dragged into a position where Spain can proclaim to the world that Germany has intervened in the civil war.

Suspicion is growing in some important quarters that one Spanish government faction is inclined to sabotage the French non-intervention scheme by provoking Germany to some drastic step.

Althoug today's newspapers treated as a sensation the increase in the Soviet Union's armed forces growing out of an extension of conscription, German officials denied rumors that Germany is seeking a collective international line-up against the Soviets.

The purpose of the press onslaught, an official spokesman said, was to call the attention of the world to the Soviets' "50 per cent increase in trained men," which, said the spokesman, has "shocked us all".

The fact that the government has not yet received Madrid's answer to the German protest over Spain's refusal to let the steamer Kamerun put in at Cadiz caused no excitement in Wilhelmstrasse. It was pointed out that Madrid's investigation of the affair "takes time", and the week-end will most likely produce Spain's response.

velt some time today. Along with other governors in the drought area, Landon will receive a telegraphic invitation to confer wtih the executive on drought problems. The conference, which Landon already has signified he will attend, will be held in Des Moines on September 1 with the governors of Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma also in attendance.

Coming to the summer White House with Farley this evening were Democratic Treasurer W. Forbes Morgan, Frank C. Walker, chairman of the party finance division, and several others whose names were not announced in advance. Farley, who has been conferring with state leaders for the past ten days, was to remain overnight at Hyde Park.

The president had a busy day ahead of him before the political session started. His engagement list began with William Seamans, who is interested in the California cooperative movement. Former Governor John G. Winant of New Hampshire, now head of the Social Security board, was to follow Seamans. Col. C. O. Sherrill, head of the Retail Stores association, was third on the schedule.

Senator Gerald P. Nye (R) of North Dakota was calling at Hyde Park in the early afternoon. His state is one of the worst hit in the drought area and one of the first the president will visit next week.

TWENTY FIVE SPECIAL TRAINS ON SATURDAY

work is last-minute matter and requires the concentration of the operating forces.

To old-timers here the news of the 25 trains recalled earlier days, as one said:

"It's been a long time since there were so many. It makes you think of the big church outings down at Rock Springs Park, along the Ohio river—they ran specials like that then."

In most of the railroad offices the arrangements for handling the trains were still to be touched up. But the general set-ups had been prepared.

Landon Special at 1:30

Governor Landon's own nine-car special will reach New Castle over the Pennsylvania at about 1:30 p. m. tomorrow. It will proceed without a stop past the West Side depot and to the scene of its destination.

Superintendent Norman M. Lawrence said "about 15 other trains" will operate over the Pennsylvania. Changes are looming hourly and this morning it was necessary to order three trains to handle a throng which at first was scheduled to travel on two.

One Pennsylvania train, arriving here at 12:30 p. m., will accommodate New Castle passengers. It will reach West Middlesex at one. That train will also stop at Koppel at 12:11.

Returning, the local accommodation will leave West Middlesex at 6:50 p. m. Ample facilities for handling the crowds have been prepared and 10 buses will help transport the Pennsylvania crowd to the Tam O'Shanter platform.

Over P. & L. E. and B. & O.

The Pitsburgh & Lake Erie is operating five specials of its own out of Pittsburgh and another Baltimore & Ohio special, coming from Somerset county, will travel here over the P. & L. E. lines. All the P. & L. E. and B. & O. trains will use the tracks of the Erie railroad from here to West Middlesex.

P. & L. E. officials said three of their five trains will stop at the old P. & L. E. depot on West Washington street to transport New Castle passengers to Landon's birthplace. Two of those trains stop at 12:26, while the third will leave here at 12:35 p. m. The first two will run closely together. Officials asked passengers to make advance ticket purchases.

At the B. & O. headquarters it was learned that Terminal Trainmaster J. L. Thoman had been hurriedly called to Akron today for a conference over special train arrangements.

The road only had the one scheduled, although it is believed a Butler delegation will ride on another B. & O. special. It would also go up the Erie line to West Middlesex.

The Erie railroad itself, it was understood, will operate a train or two down from Ferona junction, at the head of the line running through here. Nothing definite could be learned here.

The Pennsylvania's shop here and the B. & O. and P. & L. E. yards will teem with activity as the shop crews check and double-check equipment and make preparations for the return of the trains.

HUGE WELCOME GIVEN LANDON ON TRIP EAST

he remained overnight, huge crowds greeted him on his arrival, at his hotel, at a breakfast conference with Republican leaders from Iowa and Nebraska and again as he departed for his train. To the amazement of local leaders, 2,500 persons attended the breakfast, where plates had been laid for only 800.

Augurs For Success

The governor spoke briefly at the breakfast, emphasizing the need for public interest in local, state and federal governments. The warm receptions enthused him to the point where he exclaimed:

"The harmony evidenced in our party in Colorado and Nebraska augurs well for our success in November."

To a crowd of 5,000 jamming the courthouse square, he added:

"These large crowds evidence an intense interest this year in the issues raised in this campaign. We Americans are responsible for the kind of government we get and this interest indicates we are going to get good government."

Just before boarding the train at Omaha, he was informed of the text of the president's invitation to attend a drought conference at Des Moines, Iowa, September 1. He immediately announced his acceptance.

THE BARNUM HALF-DOLLAR

FAINTLY nostalgic is the plan for a memorial half-dollar approved by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau and the National Committee of Fine Arts for issuance to the greater glory of Bridgeport, Conn., and its most distinguished citizen, Phineas T. Barnum. A half-dollar was the basic price of a ticket to the circus when P. T. used to go around the ring in a four-horse barouche to receive the plaudits of a grateful people. Elderly men today can recall what prodigies of self-denial, of hard labor, of wistful ambition glorified, were represented in the final attainment of that half-dollar. It is eminently fitting that the memorial coin should be of that amount.

The coin is to be issued to the number of 25,000 to celebrate the centennial of the founding of Bridgeport. To all who know Bridgeport and its traditions, however, it will recognize, in addition to his philanthropy and public spirit, the man himself who chose Bridgeport as the winter headquarters of the Greatest Show on Earth, as town of his adpotion and place of his death. No one should detract credit for all these things from the master showman. Bridgeport honors itself and a great career of public usefulness in backing the movement with its whole soul. Barnum and Bridgeport were synonymous institutions when all the world was young.

One could hardly bring oneself to spend a Barnum half-dollar for Mundane objects. Tremendous doings of earlier years must forbid Senator Carter Glass's profile too, is to adorn a half-dollar in commemoration of the sesquicentennial of his home, Lynchburg, Va., despite the protest of this former Secretary of the Treasury that no living man's portrait should be on a coin. If we know our Barnum, Phineas T. would not have protested.

A HIGH MARK

Who is the person most in demand and the hardest to find? Miss Frances Perkins, American secretary of labor, gave the answer in the course of an address at Geneva. While it had to do primarily with Washington, it was an answer that could have been given by any number of harried executives, who are daily called upon to set their assistants on the right track.

Miss Perkins declared, in answer to her question, that it was the person who can do a thing himself, on his own responsibility, and turn in a finished job, rather than report on how it could or could not be done.

This is a sound answer. It can be taken to heart not only by men and women now engaged in useful pursuits, but by the many who are looking for employment. It applies to every one, including domestics and office workers, to those employed in factory, farm, mercantile or professional life. The definition is axiomatic. While it is too much to expect that it can be attained by all, for there are certain to be round pegs in square holes in every branch of human endeavor, it is a goal. As such it might be sought with diligence and energy.

RETICENCE PERSONIFIED

At this season, when hotel porches are filled with women, and men, too, industriously engaged in reciting their past greatness and achievement, with excursions into their maladies and operations, comes an account of the death of a remarkable woman. She had lived forty-two years at one hotel in Brooklyn and when it was torn down six years ago, moved to another, and she was 92 when she died. But her claim to recognition was not in her long life or in her long residence in one place. It lay in the fact that she set an example about the old hotel where she lived of never talking about her life!

Nothing of her ancestry, nothing of her parentage, nothing of her having been a member of one of the city's oldest families. No "organ recitals," no recounting of her aches and pains. All these were kept locked in the recesses of her memory. Nothing that was told her was retailed to others. No gossip was passed on. She placed the emphasis in her life on reticence. What a confidante she would have been!

War will end automotically when no man is slavish enough to obey another who says "Thou shalt."

Lowering the military age of Mussolini's subjects to 8 may be only a starter. There is talk of requiring babies hereafter to teethe on .45s.

THUMBING THROUGH LIFE

He stood upon the curbing and he waved his thumb at me
A lad, perhaps of twenty, and as healthy as could be.
There was something in his manner and his most attractive grin
Which enticed me for the moment,
so I stopped and took him in.

"Do many stop," I questioned, "when you're thumbing for a ride?"
"Not so many, but I stay there till one does" the boy replied.
"Soon or late somebody helps me, so
I always wait about.
Will you pull up at the corner here's the place where I get out."

I looked at him astounded, since so unashamed he talked.
He had waited to be carried seven streets he could have walked.
He had stood upon that corner merely jerking hand and thumb
Till some sympathetic driver like myself his way should come.

And I thought when he had left me:
"Boy, with legs and body stout
To the goal that lies before you that's no way of starting out.
Here's a world that's needing action
grit and courage for the strife
And already you're believing you can thumb your way through life."

All Seek Independence.
The U. S. A. Could Have It.
France Sells Wheat.
Value In Old Age.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

IN THESE DAYS EVERY nation, on every continent, seeks economic independence of every other nation. Before the big war France imported wheat: now, although some of her finest grain regions, were devastated by the war, France is selling surplus wheat to England.

NICARAGUA HAS SHIPPED her first 1,000 bales of cotton to Japan; England plans great cotton production in the Sudan "to be independent of this country," and, with Ethiopia under control, Mussolini will be able to raise all the cotton he wants with cheap labor and plenty left over to sell.

All this bothers the thoughful American cotton grower and will bother him more as England, Brazil and Russia increase cotton production.

EDOUARD HERRIOT, FORMER French premier, says America is "on another planet," as regards future financial help for France.

Our country ought to be "on another planet" as regards dependence on anything in Europe, Africa or Asia; the North American continent should be as independent of the rest of the world as Mars is of the earth, and it COULD be that.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER of the big French liner Normandie, Capt. Pugnet, is compulsorily retired because of age, only fifty-five years old. Ordinarily Europeans appreciate the experience and wisdom that come with age and keep good men working as long as possible. The commander of a great ship, responsible for thousands of lives, is an exception. He must be in the prime of physical as well as mental condition. Commander Pugnet once went sixty-three hours without leaving the bridge of his ship.

THE BIG WAR TAUGHT the world a lesson. Because Alexander ruled the world at 23, and Napoleon had almost conquered Europe in his thirties, conquerors were supposed to need extreme youth. The big war was won by old men; two of them, Lloyd George and Clemenceau, supplied the thought and energy, while Foch supplied technical military knowledge. Any one of them was old enough to be the great-grandfather of Alexander the Great.

IN THE UNITED STATES successful men work too hard, too fast, too long hours, eat foolishly, too rapidly, ruin digestion early; "Half of what they eat keeps them alive; the other half keeps the doctors alive." Nevertheless, in many lines,

CONTRIBUTION TO SCIENCE (PERHAPS)

I WONDER whether some scientist might not be able to put two facts together and arrive at a conclusion and a valuable discovery about the Common Cold.

Here are two facts and they may mean nothing at all.

Fact One: ' don't get colds. . . . By that I don't mean that I've never had a cold in my life. I have, though I've never had a bad one. . . . but, ordinarily, I don't catch 'em. I haven't any fear when a friend is all stopped up in the head and wheezing, of taking his germs and incubating them in myself. . . . I'd even be willing to drink from his glass to prove my invulnerability. Some poor souls suffer from several colds a year; I don't have one in five years. . . . And there must be a reason for this, since everything has its natural cause.

Fact Two: I sneeze. . . . Perhaps once a day I have a sneezing fit. Either sudden heat or sudden cold, or a scratch on my nose will send me off. . . . On extraordinary occasions I have sneezed forty or fifty times before stopping. . . . It's no fun. No fun for me, no fun for other human beings who can't get out of earshot of me. . . . My sneezing annoys them and I don't blame them for it. Usually they think I'm getting a cold and they move away quickly. . . . I would, too, if I caught colds. . . . My sneezing is a public nuisance. It makes little dogs bark and small children cry.

Questions: Does any connection exist between my immunity to colds and my sneezing, Can a sneeze kill a germ? Do my sneezes kill them? Do people of today have more colds than they did when they put snuff up their noses and sneezed? Are my questions silly and have I wasted your time proposing this research for scientists? . . . Will some good doctor tell me?

"A trifle rusty from the rains, but they'll make a good crop, I believe" replied Al.

"I suppose you have curtailed your hog production?"

"Sure," answered Al.

"What crop are you depending on this year for your cash crop?"

"Succotash, mainly," said Al.

DEAR MISS MARKEL — Just where should place cards be put, and are they used for both lunch and dinner? P. R.

Answer—They are placed on the tablecloth, either above the plate or on the napkin. The family crest is sometimes embossed in white, gold or silver at the top of each card. But ordinarily, they are plain, white cards bearing guests' names written in ink.

They are seldom used at informal dinners. When the hostess of such a function reaches her place, she indicates where her guests are to be seated.

Formal, but not informal luncheons, require place cards.

DEAR MISS MARKEL—If finger bowls are to be used, where should they be placed? A. S.

Answer—At formal dinners, finger bowls are brought in after the dessert plates have been removed.

At informal dinners and luncheons, they may be brought in on the dessert plates, with a small doily between the bowl and the plate. The dessert silver also is brought in on this plate, the spoon on the right, and the fork on the left.

The guest should lift the silver from the plate, placing it upon the table, the spoon on the right and the fork on the left of the plate. The finger bowl with the doily should then be removed from the plate and placed, to the left, on the table, leaving the plate ready for the dessert.

Youth Problem Unmet.
Neglected In Campaign.
Spanish Horrors Cited.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

THE MOST PRESSING problem to be met in the next administration is being evaded by the Democratic, Republican and Union parties. That is, getting basically at the unemployment situation.

Considerable unemployment could be relieved now if men—and women—had been trained to definite tasks in professions and trades during the depression. That still holds true for youth. Youth still is being ground out of schools and colleges with little regard for the realities. There are millions of unemployed youth.

Such youth is a potential danger to democracy. Seeing that it has failed them they may readily turn Fascistic, and try to obtain by force that which has been denied them by a stupid system.

Both government and industry could well afford to join in training young men and young women for specific professions and trade—and then placing them into jobs, observers say. As it is, youth is on the liability side of the ledger.

PARTY PLATFORMS

The magazine Nation recently made a survey of party platforms.

This is what the Nation's summary showed in regard to statements in the various platforms concerning youth:

Democratic party: "Our Youth have been returned to the road of freedom and prosperity. We will keep them on that road."

Republican party: Silent.

Socialist party: Demands the passage of the American Youth act and federal appropriation for establishment of public schools and free city colleges to make possible a full education for every young person; asks for the abolition of the CCC and the National Youth Administration as threats to the "wage and living standards of organized labor."

Communist party: Demands provision of "opportunity, education and work" for youth as embodied in the American Youth act. Asks for the maintenance and enlargement of the National Youth Administration.

Union party: Congress shall re-establish conditions so that youth may earn a decent living while perfecting themselves in a trade or a profession.

Chicago Farm Labor Conference: Advocates "a measure that will provide adequate funds for a youth program that can give youth the opportunity for education and work."

BAD BUSINESS

Some business men believe there will be a strong reaction against private power companies unless they modify their tactics.

Terrific resentment among many people in the south has arisen because a local judge granted an injunction restraining the government from selling TVA power to the city of Chattanooga, Tenn. Chattanooga had voted overwhelmingly to issue $8,000,000 in bonds to build a plant for distribution of TVA power. Now the Tennessee Electric company has obtained an injunction.

The people now are asserting that private power companies be forced out altogether—that all public resources, which produce power and other elements essential to the welfare of the people belong to the people themselves through their government.

WALL STREET SPEAKS

Quotation from the Wall Street Journal:

"International Telephone came to life after a long spell of stagnation due to the troubles in Spain where one of the company's important subsidiaries operates. . . . Some think the arrival of German and Italian bombing planes, which are to participate in the rebel attack on Madrid, may insure the success of the rebel government. This might be considered a victory for property rights. . . ."

But not for human rights, for we read in top headlines in the Toronto Daily Star—a paper of world-wide reputation for the truth of its news reporting:

"Socialist children murdered by rebels in Spanish carnage. Scenes of horror perpetrated by Fascists witnessed by reporter. Rebels well armed. But Italian airplanes, artillery and explosive bullets defied by Loyalists."

It is sufficient to quote three paragraphs concerning the rebels which some in Wall Street hope will win so as to bolster a corporation's stock. The paragraphs are from a dispatch by Pierre Van Passen, noted foreign correspondent of the Toronto Daily Star:

"Before the west wall of the church I saw the most horrible spectacle I ever beheld in my life. The bloody ferocity of Ethiopia was surpassed. In a long row, in grotesque attitudes of death lay 70 or 80 children. They had been executed. All of them wore the blue shirts of the Socialist Sports club. The Fascists, when they were at Buitroga a week ago, had put these children against the wall and killed them.

"'Were they captured?' I asked.

"'They had taken refuge in the church,' came the answer, 'when the Fascists came into town. They fought back till their last cartridge was spent. Then they set fire to the building, expecting to perish under the flaming ruins. But the Fascist troopers burst in the doors and led them outside, the wounded as well as the whole, tied them up two by two . . . and then battered out their brains, one by one, with the butts of ribles.'

"I walked along the row of horribly tortured bodies. I could not help weeping at the sight of such a holocaust. My hands still tremble as I write these lines. On many of the dead faces of those children lay an expression of surprised pain and innocence."

ANOTHER HEADLINE

Another headline in the Toronto Daily Star reads:

"'Give Britain warning Canada won't fight,' pleads C. C. F. leader. Asks 'Why sacrifice Canadian youths for London statesmen's bungling?' Favors isolation. Sees Dominion dragged into war unless Canadian investments are controlled."

Triple Celebration Planned At Bangor

Will Commemorate The 100th Anniversary Of The Discovery Of Slate

(International News Service)

BANGOR, Pa., Aug. 21.—Plans are going forward for the triple celebration of the 100th anniversary of the discovery of slate here, the 70th anniversary of the opening of the first slate quarry, and the 50th anniversary of the death of R. M. Jones, Welsh mining engineer who discovered slate stratae and was this borough's first chief burgess.

A pageant depicting industrial, social, and civic progress of slate belt communities, of which Bangor is the heart, will be the feature of the centennary which starts September 30 and continues through October 3.

It was in 1836 that Jones discovered the first slate vein at Slateford, eight miles northeast of here on the Delaware river. Later, he traced the stratum from the river westward along the Blue Ridge mountains that border Bangor on the north and give it terrain similar to Bangor, Caernarvonshire, Wales.

Soon other slate workers heard of the discovery and migrated to this region. Much of the borough's population, as well as that of near-by Pen Argyl, is of Welsh and English descent. Many of the older residents are natives of those two countries.

particularly in great railroad and other corporations, there is too early compulsory retirement.

If the late, original J. Pierpont Morgan had been a corporation official instead of being the financial boss of many corporations, he would have been retired "by rule" at the height of his powers.

FORTUNATELY, EXCEPTION is made for our Supreme Court justices, whose work requires maturity, knowledge and the independence of hasty public emotion possessed by age.

Chief Justice Hughes supplies an example of great usefulness combined with mature years; as powerful mentally as he was 40 years ago, with increased learning, he celebrated his 74th birthday this year.

Had he been president of a railroad, doing other work important to the country, he would have been expected to retire long since.

It is fortunate that the writers of the constitution realized the value of mature wisdom, that more than offsets the physical weakness of old age. Benjamin Franklin, who was 70 when he signed the Declaration of Independence, was about 80 when the constitution was adopted.

ADDRESSING 300,000 followers, and wildly applauded, Hitler said: "Germany is equal to any nation on earth."

It may be true, although everything about the next war is uncertain; some genius of the air might settle the fight quickly. Discipline and courage on the ground might make little difference.

AND HITLER'S PROBLEM, like the Kaiser's in 1914, might not be "equality with any nation," but with a COLLECTION of nations.

Today, with airplanes, any nation might invade the heart of any other nation within a few hours. No prediction is safe except that, win or lose, the war would not pay.

MUSSOLINI, IMMEDIATELY after his conquest, instructed Marshal Badoglio to decree freedom for all slaves in Ethiopian territory under Italian control.

Slavery existed throughout Ethiopia, in all regions controlled by Haile Selassie, including Addis Ababa, and it was an unpleasant slavery; "owners had an almost unquestioned power of life and death over their slaves. Upon the latter the grossest inhumanities were often inflicted."

To end that kind of slavery should help offset the use of machine guns and poison gas, choicest weapons of the white race.

Gas Company Has Rather Queer Hobby

COLUMBUS, O.—The Ohio Fuel Gas Co., now appealing for a 55-cent gas rate in place of the 48-cent rate decreed by capital city voters, recently became known as the parent of a strong industry for a utility—the raising of pheasants.

BOSSY YOUNGSTERS

Who knows when we parents begin making ourselves ready to cultivate cooperation in our children? Indirectly our ancestors were at the job centuries ago. We have prepared ourselves insofar as we have mastered our own emotions.

We can't compel cooperation, we must win it. We gain cooperation from the child (of any age) in proportion as we induce him to feel favorable toward us and what we want him to do.

Having managed ourselves so as not to be managed by the infant, having established the meaning of NO rarely used, we prevent a vast deal of vexation to the young child and have cleared the deck for enjoying his companionship.

By smiles, quiet voice and gentle words of approval we lead the infant in his early months to connect pleasant associations with us. We likewise do so as we notice, admire and approve his small achievements at self-help, at manipulating objects, at crude creations and inventions. We answer his questions. We never weary of hearing what and how and why.

When his fairies appear we welcome them. We learn their language; so we walk with them and talk with them. Hand in hand we go with a child of three or four into his enchanted land of make-believe.

Enrich Child's Fancy.

We enrich the child's world of fancy by reading fairy tales to him. We read and read and read. We delight to hear the yarns he weaves out of his imagination, and he knows we do. As the child grows older he tells us more and more of his real experiences—his joys and sorrows, hopes and fears. He knows that we take him at his word, that we consider what he says and does worthy of our interest and our rapt attention. He feels that he amounts to something, and that we will always treat him as a sacred personality.

Therefore he attunes himself to our wishes and finds satisfaction in doing nearly all we ask him to do. What we asked him was, of course, guided greatly by our insight and acquaintance with him as a companionable personality.

We build for cooperation in the child through genuine love which in turn is builded on sympathy, insight and regard for the sacredness of his personality.

Mail Clerk Travels 290,000 Miles

(International News Service)

SHELBY, O.—After traveling the equivalent of 11 times around the world and 15,000 miles additional, E. S. Steele, for 34 years an employe of the Railway Mail Service, retired recently.

In 1902 he stepped into the first mail car on the Pittsburgh-Chicago run, little knowing he was virtually to live in a mail car for more than a quarter century.

He continued on the run for 10 months and then was given a regular appointment to the Cleveland-Cincinnati run. For 33 years and two months he has continued on this run, going south on No. 5 and north on No. 28 all these years.

During this time, Steele maintained his home in Shelby.

On his retirement he estimated that he had traveled at least 290,000 miles.

WATSON USES "NEEDLE" THEN FEELS BETTER

BUTLER, Pa., Aug. 21.—"Down in the dumps," as he described it to authorities today, George W. Watson, 40, of Lewistown, had a change of heart today, after having slashed his wrist with a razor, and said he wanted to live.

Watson, according to police, tried to commit suicide by slashing his wrists in Art's place on Main street. A suspicious person charge was preferred against him by Police Chief W. R. Kennedy, and the despondent man was taken to the county jail.

My New York By James Aswell

Copyright, 1936, Central Press Association

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Interview With a Commuter:

Q. You moved from Manhattan several years ago, did you not, to become a commuter?

A. Definitely. I was in love with the fresh air, the birds and the bees and flowers. I was in revolt against the smoke and fumes, the noise and confusion and high rents of the city.

Q. And you come in to town every morning, returning home each evening by train?

A. I do. It's a pleasant life. I don't see what possessed me to live in Manhattan as long as I did.

Q. How long does it take you to reach your office from your home in the country?

A. Just about fifty-five minutes.

Q. That's train time?

A. Yes. But it only takes me about twelve minutes to be driven to the station of the little town. My wife drives me each morning and comes for me each evening.

Q. And how long does it take you to reach your office from the railroad station in Manhattan?

A. Oh, no time at all. Six or seven minutes.

Q. Then I take it you spend twice twelve minutes, plus twice seven minutes, plus twice fifty-five minutes in transit every day—or a total of about two hours and a half?

A. Well, you can figure it out that way if you wish. It doesn't seem that long. Think of the pure air of the country, the birds and the—

Q. Two hours and a half a day. Six times that is fifteen hours a week, or two working days. About eight working days a month you spend on trains or in the process of getting to and from work, don't you? That's ninety-six days a year, or more than three full months, isn't it?

A. Oh, you can distort figures to make it seem depressing, but think of what we save.

Q. What does your commuting cost you?

A. Oh, I only pay $21 a month for my commuting ticket.

Q. And your car? You didn't need a car in Manhattan, did you?

A. Every man should have a car. I trade my inexpensive coupe in every year and get a new one. It only costs me $250 a year to do this. The car doesn't cost me more than $400 a year altogether, for gas, oil and everything. That's a generous estimate. In New York the garage bill alone—

Q. Let's see, that's $21 for commuting, plus about $33 for your car, on a monthly basis. Which makes $54 extra expense for living in the country. What about coal and other fuel, taxes and upkeep for your home?

A. All of that doesn't amount to more than $300 a year. Those things are figured into the rent you pay on city apartments anyhow.

Q. All right, forget them. Did you have a servant in the city?

A. Yes, three times a week a girl came in and cleaned. We lived in a small apartment.

Q. Have you a servant now?

A. Yes, two; they're necessary with a house.

Q. And you pay them?

A. Oh, about $50 a month for the pair. Servants are cheap in the country. We paid our maid in town $20 a month just for the little she did—half days at that.

Q. So that make a total of $54 plus $30 or $85 a month more it costs you to live in the country. And in ten years you will have spent at least two and a half years getting out to the country at night and in to your office in the morning. Am I right?

A. Say, what's the idea? Are you trying to prove—

Your Reporter: No, I'm sorry. I just wanted to get away for a weekend and couldn't. I've got to console myself somehow, haven't I?

FALLSTON HILL ORDERED OPEN

State Highway Superintendent Orders Hill Open For Some Traffic

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 21.—The treacherous Fallston Hill on state route 51, Beaver county, today was ordered opened to two-way passenger car traffic and westbound truck traffic by Secretary of Highways Warren Van Dyke.

The "death hill," where many fatal accidents have been recorded, was ordered closed by the Beaver county commissioners following a recent collision in which three persons were burned to death.

"Recent fatalities on Fallston Hill have been seized upon by Beaver County politicals in an attempt to discredit the department of highways," Van Dyke declared. 'We have full appreciation of the hazards of this treacherous section of the road. At the time of the latest fatalities a survey designed to provide relocation of the highway, which will eliminate the hazard, was 75 per cent completed.

"This survey is being rushed and we hope to place the relocation under contract before the end of the year. Meanwhile, we are taking every precaution to protest lives and property."

Van Dyke said eastbound truck traffic, except for local hauling west of the hill, will be stopped "from East Palestine, O., to Pittsburgh via East Liverpool and the Lincoln Highway."

Final Instructions Issued By Sheriff

Ellwood Landon Delegation Asked To Come In Over Arlington Avenue

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard announces that everything is in readiness for the Landon caravan to start from the Carnegie furnace grounds tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

A request is made that the Ellwood City delegation turn off at Arlington avenue from East Washington street, come down Long avenue to Mill street and up Mill to the Carnegie grounds. It is anticipated that there will be considerable congestion on East Washington street, and this can be avoided by coming over the Arlington avenue route.

No attempt is being made to route the other delegation to this city, as it is realized that the cars will come here from different sections. The important thing is that everybody be on the Carnegie grounds promptly at 9:30 in order that there be no delay in starting.

The New Wilmington delegation will be held until the New Castle delegation arrives and will fall in behind. It is believed that ample parking ground has been secured for all cars a short distance south of the speaker's platform in the golf grounds.

Ohio Youth Wounds Couple In Gasoline Station Holdup In Iowa

(International News Service)

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Aug. 21.—Caught after a 20-mile automobile chase, Walter Price, 18, of Urbana, O., today confessed the shooting of Mr. and Mrs. Jet Dawson at a filling station in Rockwell City last night.

The youth's explanation was that he "wanted some gas and some money." He wept as he told officers that he was attempting to reach his home in Ohio.

Both victims were seriously wounded.

The first representative assembly in America convened at Jamestown, Va., July 30, 1619. The colony was founded in 1607 by Capt. John Smith and 100 cavaliers.

Although it was used by vessels as early as 1914, the Panama Canal was not declared opened officially until July 12, 1920. Traffic in early years was hampered by slides.

RESCUERS WORK TOWARDS ENTOMBED MINERS

Little Hope Four Men Still Alive

Rescue Workers Are About Ten Feet From Men In Missouri Mine

FIND DEADLY GAS HAD FILLED MINE

(International News Service)

MOBERLY, Mo., Aug. 21—Burrowing their way at the rate of two feet an hour rescue workers early today had penetrated to within 10 feet of four miners trapped 130 feet below the earths surface since last Tuesday afternoon.

The 150 rescue workers, risking their own lives in the gas-filled mine held little hope the entombed men will be found alive.

The four victims—Demmer Sexton 37, and Edward Stonner, Jr., 27, who leased the mine three weeks ago, A. W. McCann, 50 and George T. Dameron 27, a negro mule driver—were trapped in the mine when fire suddenly broke out in the main shaft.

The raging flames spread through the mine, destroying the shaft cribbing, the resultant cave-ins locked the four men in their subterranean prison.

Find Deadly Gases

The rescue workers found the mine filled with deadly gases as the result of the fire and the water poured into the mine in a desperate effort to halt the spread of the flames.

Arnold Griffith, state mine director in charge of the rescue work said today the only chance the entombed men had of surviving the gases was the possibility they succeeded in sealing themselves from the foul fumes.

Griffith was forced to post armed guards about the mine entrance when a group of irate miners from among the 5000 persons milling about the mine, impatient with the failure of the rescue crews to reach the entombed men, attempted to enter the mine and "bring 'em up in our own way."

Mystery Ship Crew Hunted

Speedy Naval Destroyers Search For Crew Adrift In Life Boats

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Aug. 21.—Three speedy naval destroyers and two freighters were searching the raging Pacific off Lower California today for a "mystery ship" crew fighting for life in tiny life boats.

In a final desperate S. O. S. last night, shore officials were told that the crew was abandoning ship in the hurricane lashed seas. First word from the unidentified vessel indicated she had lost her rudder.

It was at first believed the ship was the Tuna Clipper San Joaquin, but that boat was found safely in harbor here. Cannery officials expressed belief the abandoned ship is either another Tuna Clipper, the Sao Joa of San Diego, Cal., or a small tramp freighter plying between Honolulu and the mainland.

The position given, 700 miles south of here, is directly in the trade route to the islands where a furious tropical storm has raged for several days.

Admiral Arthur J. Hepburn, commander-in-chief of the United States fleet, ordered the "vest pocket" destroyers Monoghan, Alywin and Worden to proceed under full speed on the search. The steamers Surlies and Monterey also joined in the hunt.

Italians who colonize Ethiopia are treated well. Mussolini ships the casket home free.

It is said that in Russia, where there is very little sex suppression, there is also very little interest in sex judged by the fact that the movies and newspapers there practically ignore it as a topic of interest.

Victim's Father Will Testify In Clevenger Case

Gray-Haired Father Of Slain Helen Clevenger Will Offer Testimony

(International News Service)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 21.—Gray-haired J. F. Clevenger, who came here from his home in New York City at his own expense, was to take the witness stand today in Buncombe county court house to close the state's case against Martin Moore, negro bellboy, for the murder of his pretty co-ed daughter, Helen Clevenger.

Prosecutor Zeb Nettles planned to call Clevenger to supplement testimony by Dr. Benjamin Morgan Vance, assistant medical examiner of New York, by asserting that his 19-year-old daughter, whose battered body was found in Room 224 of the Battery Park hotel, was a blonde. Dr. Vance testified yesterday that a tiny fibre found on a revolver traced to Moore was a "human hair, light and amber" in color, but the objections of the defense counsel halted him when he sought to describe it as "blonde."

Voluminous Testimony

In their efforts to convict the ambling, 22-year-old negro youth for first degree murder, the state has offered a voluminous amount of expert and inexpert testimony.

Superior court Judge Phillips held up decision on the admissibility as evidence of the alleged confession made by Moore that he shot and beat the co-ed to death after entering her room, intent upon robbery. He tempered this prosecution setback somewhat, however, by ruling that state witnesses might tell how the bellboy is said to have made the statements wherein he is reputed to have described in detail how he killed the girl in a sudden panic when she screamed.

The names of two celebrities of the cinema and sports worlds are linked romantically in latest rumors from Hollywood. They are Sonja Henie, flaxen-haired ice skating champion, and Cary Grant, handsome screen actor. The couple, shown above, have been seen together at several social affairs in the film colony since Miss Henie accepted a screen offer. "We're just friends, but good ones," Grant says.

GREAT AUNT OF GOV. LANDON IS GUEST IN CITY

Mrs. Emma Lininger Recalls Early Associations With Republican Nominee

In New Castle for a short time last night as guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Booth of Englewood avenue was Mrs. Emma Lininger, great-aunt of Governor Alf M. Landon, Republican candidate for president.

Mrs. Lininger, who is about 82 years of age, and whose home is in Greenville, is eagerly awaiting the arrival of Governor Landon at West Middlesex tomorrow, where she will greet him amid scenes that were familiar to associations of both of them years ago.

When Landon was a boy he spent much of his time with Mrs. Lininger, she recalled last night. His great sport of his boyhood was fishing, and he spent many hours on the Shenango river near Greenville. She recalls that at one time when she was with him he landed a large carp, and it was a high spot in his fishing career.

Mrs. Lininger was at Topeka for the second inauguration of Gov. Landon, in 1934, and spent a month at the governor's home. "You can say for me that Governor Landon is all the fine man that the newspapers, magazines and radio speakers have declared."

And Mrs. Lininger is certain that Governor Landon will be the next president of the United States, she added in conclusion.

Roosevelt Invites Landon To Parley

Formal Invitation Extended For Drought Relief Conference September 1

(International News Service)

HYDE PARK, Aug. 21.—President Roosevelt today formally invited his Republican opponent, Governor Alf M. Landon, of Kansas, and a number of other state executives to join him in a discussion of drought relief problem.

A telegram went forward to Landon from the summer white house as follows:

"As you probably know, I am coming west next week to get at first hand all the information I can with respect to the situation in the drought area. We plan to arrive in Des Moines early morning, Tuesday, September first, and I would appreciate much if you could find it convenient to meet us there for a general discussion of the situation. To this conference I am also inviting Governors Herring of Iowa, Cochran of Nebraska, Park of Missouri and Marland of Oklahoma.

"I am asking Governor Herring, as our host, to advise yau as to the detailed plans for the conference.

"FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT."

Similarly worded telegrams went forward to the governors of every state in the wide area affected by the drought asking them to conferences in their respective regions.

Lawrence Names Veteran's Unit

Democratic State Chairman Prepares For Intensive Drive For Soldiers' Vote

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 21.—The Democratic state campaign committee today prepared for an intensive drive to enlist the soldiers' vote as David L. Lawrence, state Democratic chairman, announced officers of the veteran's unit.

Ellwood T. Bauman, of Easton, veteran of many political and overseas battles, was appointed chairman of the division while Mrs. Gertrude R. Emery, Williamsport, was appointed vice chairman, and Silas K. Ginsburg, of Philadelphia, was named secretary.

Bauman held a similar post in the successful national campaign of 1932 and that for the election of Gov. George H. Earle in 1934. He served with the U. S. engineers, for 15 months before being wounded in the world war.

Mrs. Emery saw service in both France and Germany in 1918. With Y. M. C. A. canteen units, while Ginsburg, who now resides in Harrisburg, enlisted in the U. S. Navy in 1918, serving as a first-class radio electrician.

Scout Dinner Plans Progressing Today

Plans went forward today for the dinner meeting which members of the Lawrence County Boy Scout council, troop committee members, scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters will hold at Camp John M. Phillips on Monday evening, August 24.

Dinner reservations, the scout office said, must be made before Saturday noon.

Big Bouquet Of Local Sunflowers For Gov. Landon

Aged Resident Of Harlansburg Road To Present Flowers To Native Son

Governor Landon will be presented with a basket of beautiful sunflowers raised at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, 95-year-old Harlansburg road resident, when he arrives at The Castleton from West Middlesex late Saturday afternoon.

"I want Mr. Landon to get these," was the word Mrs. Moore sent to Fred L. Rentz when they were brought to The News this morning. The floral basket will be on display at The News today and tomorrow. Mr. Rentz will see to it that the presidential nominee receives it.

Always a Republican, Mrs. Moore is hoping that Governor Landon will be the next White House tenant.

"I won't be able to vote this time—but I'll send six Landon voters to the polls," Mrs. Moore smilingly said. The six voters will be her six children.

Five Women Who Took Care Of Landon Baby Eagerly Await Reunion

Five women who helped take care of Alf Landon at birth and when he was two years old are awaiting the Kansas governor's visit with great interest for he has accepted an invitation to an informal little reunion in the home of Mrs. A. A. Young, West Middlesex.

They are:

Mrs. Mary Reed Baird, neighbor to Mrs. Young, who was the Landon nurse.

Mrs. Mollie Clayton Jennings of Pulaski, who made the Landon baby's clothes.

Mrs. Fannie King White of Sharon, who was an intimate friend of the Mossmans and wheeled their little grandson in a cart during visits to West Middlesex and watched him while he scampered uncertainly around the Mossman yard at the age of two.

Mrs. Ida Groscope Dunham, of Sharon, who stayed with the Mossman family while she went to school and who helped care for little Alf, and who gave him the chicken pox.

Mrs. Lizzie Buckalew, of New Virginia, Mercer county, who came to the Mossman home as a young country girl and was a maid there when the baby was born.

All five are close friends of Mrs. Young at whose home the reunion is to be held. Mrs. Young herself had no part in caring for little Alf but she remembers the day when, as 9-year-old Effie Espy, she rushed home and told her parents that Anna Landon had a baby. It seems that when a little girl she kept a close track of all the blessed events in the West Middlesex community.

NAVAL NOTES

By M. L. NIXON
Naval Recruiter, Second Floor Federal Building

Each ship in the navy has its own post office and mail clerk who is an enlisted man in the regular navy. The record of a mail clerk aboard one of the battleships which made the cruise to Panama recently shows that the navy men do not spend all their pay, far from it. The records show that for a three weeks' period the members of the crew on that particular ship sent $20,453.00 in money orders, and $847.00 in registered mail to the United States. This was in addition to the money sent direct from Washington, as the men with dependents, or wishing to save, may allot part of their pay, thus making certain the money will arrive, regardless of where the ship may be. This makes an average of over $21.00 per man sent back to the United States for the three weeks.

Everyone has heard that ships have more than one propeller but I wonder if it is known that some ships have more than one rudder or steering device. These ships are small ones used on the Yangtze river in China and must, due to the sharp bends in the river channel, be able to turn in the shortest possible space. Multiple rudders is the only solution to quicker maneuvering. Another oddity: There is only one ship in the navy that is named after a woman—Sarah Thompson.

Battle Over Slacks

Rena Breen (below) went to St. Joseph's Church, Babylon, L. I., dressed in slacks and halter. The Rev. James A. Smith ordered her to leave. She returned after she had put on a jacket. Father Smith ejected the girl. Miss Breen at first pondered legal action against the priest, but gave up the idea.

AROUND CITY HALL

During council meeting Thursday Director of Properties Joseph D. Alexander submitted a bill for $45, representing expenses for his trip to Harrisburg in May in connection with the airport project. Mayor Charles E. McGrath, Councilmen James L. Fink and Myron J. Rice at first opposed payment as the resolution passed in May directed City Engineer Glenn Throop to make the trip after a delegation of businessmen had asked council to expedite the project. They also said that they would help pay the expense, if necessary. Alexander told several of the council of his decision to accompany Throop as a representative of the city. Yesterday he told his colleagues the bill was incurred while transacting city business and also said that Throop would not have been allowed to sign documents there. As an elected officer of the city, Alexander said he was empowered and did sign the papers and said that had he not gone to Harrisburg the project would either been delayed or dropped entirely. Councilman Fink and the mayor suggested that a resolution be passed authorizing the trip following which another resolution would be adopted and under provisions of which Alexander could be paid legally. Both were passed and Alexander will receive the $45.00 refund having spent that sum while there four days.

George Kennedy, acting chief of police said today he desired publicly to thank Louis B. Round and employes of the Pennsylvania Power company for assistance when police recovered the body of the late Junior Helton. The lad was drowned. Police called Round and he sent a force of men who erected floodlights so the work could proceed at night. Furthermore Mr. Round, according to the officer, instructed that any time the company could aid in saving life or in preventing accident all the department of police need do would be to call and employes have orders to respond immediately.

After city hall folk had visited the Old Timers at Cascade Park on Wednesday, Mayor Charles E. McGrath and councilmen accompanied C. Ed. Brown to his cottage at Stoneboro Lake. When the rain descended the mayor was in a rowboat with some other persons. He was in the middle of the lake. Brown had to provide the mayor with a suit of his clothes.

It is probable that many people who work downtown will ride the street car Saturday morning and leave their automobile in the garage, per the suggestion of Mayor Charles E. McGrath. Troop F, firemen and constables will aid police in directing traffic. Parking has been closed to parking of cars in practically all downtown street.

Knew Mark Twain In Steamboat Days

(International News Service)

URBANA, O.—Jonas Slaughter, 80-year-old retired colored barber, related here recently that when he was a young man he was a barber for two years on the famous old Robert E. Lee, Mississippi river steamboat, when Mark Twain was its pilot.

Throughout the entire period Slaughter had no idea that Samuel Clements, the pilot, was the famous humorist. It was not until 17 years later when he saw a newspaper picture of Mark Twain that Slaughter made the identification.

When Slaughter left the Robert E. Lee at New Orleans in 1868 he brought with him to Urbana the first bunch of bananas ever seen here "and people didn't like them," he said.

Twenty-Two In Michigan Face Arrest Today

Indict Twenty-Two In Connection With Black Legion Activities

START SERVING WARRANTS TODAY

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Aug. 21.—Twenty-two persons today were indicted under Michigan's broad criminal syndicalism law because of alleged activities in the Black Legion, sinister night-riding clan.

The indictments were returned by Judge James E. Chenot, sitting as a one-man grand jury.

Criminal syndicalism, Judge Chenot explained, covered conspiracy by a group to overthrow the existing United States government.

Each indictment against the 22 persons contained eight counts. Names must me withheld under Michigan law until they are in custody, Judge Chenot declared.

To Serve Warrants

Twenty detectives immediately were sent out to serve warrants based on the indictments.

Judge Chenot had started his one-man probe of the black robed night-riders after the killing of Charles A. Poole, a WPA worker, last May 12. Killing of Poole by a band of night riders led to the unmasking of the secret cult.

With the indictment of the 22, the number of persons either named in charges or in custody in connection with Black Legion crimes in this state was raised to nearly 100. Charges vary from murder to arson to flogging.

Five At Liberty

Five of those indicted today were at liberty under bond in connection with other Black Legion crimes. They will be rearrested and lodged in jail.

Names of four others indicted were released automatically inasmuch as they were already in jail. They were Harvey Davis, alleged "colonel" of the night riders, Clarence Frye, William Guthrie and Roy Hepner.

Soviet Plotters Face Execution

Plotters Against Life Of Josef Stalin Will Probably Face Firing Squad

(International News Service)

MOSCOW, Aug. 21.—Leon Trotsky, safe in Norwegian exile, and the German gestapo—secret police—stood out today as the absent defendants in the trial of 16 alleged Trotskyists, whose bland confessions of four separate plots to assassinate Joseph Stalin have already foredoomed most of them to the firing squad.

While Gregory Zinoviev and Leon Kamenev and the other defendants vied with each other in piling up damaging evidence, and even lauded the regime they sought to destroy, Prosecutor Andrei Vishinski strove to knot the tangled skeins of the conspiracy around Trotsky and the gestapo.

"Trotsky's part in the plot was greater than mine," declared Zinoviev, "although I was actually working on the spot." Kamenev and Zinoviev, once exiled with Trotsky, never broke our alliance with him," Zinoviev testified.

BACK FROM FISHING TRIP

Home today from a northern Ontario fishing trip were Charles B. Fiester, Sheridan avenue, associated with the office of Superintendent Norman M. Lawrence of the Pennsylvania railroad, and J. F. Perelman, Boyles avenue. They fished in lakes and rivers of the northern end of the province.

A crowd estimated at 10,000 watched the running of the first Kentucky Derby in 1875, when Aristides won the race and a purse of $3,100.

Mexico Rejects Uruguayan Plan

Pan-American Mediation Of Spanish Revolt Does Not Meet Approval

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 21.—Timed and toned like Washington's message to Uruguay, Mexico today rejected Uruguay's suggestion for pan-American mediation in the Spanish civil war.

Simultaneously all passengers on the Spanish liner Magellan were ordered ashore at Vera Cruz to make room for the biggest shipment of arms and ammunition ever to leave Mexico, bound for the Loyalist Spanish government, knowledge of the consignment was, however, denied by the Mexican government.

Turning down Uruguay's plan, Foreign Minister Eduardo Hay said: "This would imply intervention in the internal affairs of another country, and any act of this kind, howsoever generous and noble may be its intentions, contradicts the traditional principles of our international policy."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21—Deposits of the 5,374 active national banks reached a record high June 30 comptroller of the currency J. F. T. Connor disclosed today. The total was $26,200,453,000, $1,340,998,000 more than on deposit March 4 and $3,682,207,000 higher than on June 30, 1935.

National banks investments in U. S. obligations direct and fully guaranteed, amounted to $8,447,364,000, almost $1,000,000,000 more than in March.

The federal reserve board reported that excess reserve of member banks were reduced from $3,170,000,000 Aug. 12, to $1,810,000,000 Aug. 19, because of its order raising reserve requirements 50 percent as a move against harmful credit expansion. The order became effective Aug. 15 and resulted in required reserves being increased by approximatly $1,470,000,000.

Sankey-Kerr Pupils Have First Outing

Harbor Church Is Scene Of Delightful Reunion On Thursday

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Former pupils of the old Sankey-Kerr school, at the Harbor, numbering approximately 150, assembled for their first annual outing, Thursday afternoon and evening, at Harbor church. From every standpoint the affair was a success.

Early yesterday afternoon, the picnickers gathered, coming from various districts. It was a most interesting get-together. School day incidents were revived as were acquaintances of yesteryears. A delicious dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

A business meeting followed. C. C. Fullerton, of Mount Jackson, the oldest teacher present, in a most interesting manner, told of getting his teacher's certificate in 1884 and of teaching at Sankey-Kerr school. He named his first pupils and members of the school board. Mrs. Harvey Robinson, who was an instructor in 1903, also spoke. The next speaker, Miss Elda Vance, asked her former pupils to arise and was surprised to discover that 17 were present. She was a teacher at Sankey-Kerr in 1911.

The program continued with a humorous talk by A. Clyde Shoaff. The last two speakers were William McElwee, Jr., of New Wilmington and Rev. S. Y. Sankey, Slippery Rock, two former pupils. The addresses were thoroughly enjoyed.

The result of the election of officers which followed: Mrs. Jennie Curtis, re-elected president; Sara Krestel Barton, vice president; Mrs. Marvin B. Dinsmore, secretary; Miss Elda M. Vance, treasurer. Benediction by Rev. Sankey brought to a close the program.

The Sankey-Kerr school was used until 1917. Yesterday's reunion was held just for former pupils of this old school. The second outing will be held on the third Thursday in August, 1937.

Out of town residents present included: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Viets, Wheeling, West Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. William McElwee Jr., New Wilmington, C. M. Smith, Beaver, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Seidner, of Youngstown.

The general committee included: tables, Miss Irene Matthews, Mrs. Florence Salmen. Mrs. Caroline Rohrer; coffee, Mrs. Mattie Ripple, Mrs. Mayme Miller; program, Miss Elda M. Vance; sports, David Curtis, Louis Zeigler.

Latest estimate of the number of vessels in the American merchant marine, on seas and lakes, is 3,692. This included only ships of 100 tons or more.

Seed-Loans For Drought Farmers Being Prepared

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—An extensive program for making seed loans to drought-stricken farmers was prepared today by the Department of Agriculture.

Instead of the government purchasing feed grains as was done after the 1934 drought, the officials plan to make loans.

Lack of available funds is the chief handicap. Whereas congress was still in session during the 1934 drought and appropriated funds for relief, and FERA had more than $1,000,000,000 available for direct relief, this year no special or emergency funds are available except WPA work relief funds, and RA's $83,000,000 for loans and grants.

Money Available

From the funds provided for disposal of commodity surpluses, approximately $30,000,000 will be available for purchase of drought cattle, sheep and hogs if necessary, but no extensive livestock purchasing program is anticipated. From the $5,000,000 already allocated for cattle purchases, less than $100,000 has been used, and no purchases have been made for ten days. Only 2,500 head were actually purchased.

Plans for purchase of several thousand head of sheep from the Dakotas, Montana and Wyoming are under way.

Officials estimate that less than $5,000,000 will be needed for this purpose. No purchase of hogs has been discussed.

Prices thus far have been holding up for livestock, and purchases will be made only to prevent dumping on the market.

Historic Building Is Needing Repairs

Money Appropriated Six Years Ago But Court Litigation Has Caused Delay

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., Aug. 21.—Fear that the historic Ephrata Cloisters, near here, face irreparable ruin if they go through another severe winter without at least partial rehabilitation has been expressed by Karl T. Mark, executive secretary of the German-American conference.

Six years ago the state appropriated $10,000 for the restoration of the historic site, but delays in settling the receivership of the Seven Day Baptist organization, owners of the property, have prevented the work from being undertaken.

The Cloister buildings, started in 1735, were used as hospitals during the Revolutionary War. The work of the nuns at this time is pointed to as a forerunner of the Red Cross in this country. The Cloisters, scene of the largest industrial establishment of colonial America, served as a printing shop for colonial money during the occupation of Philadelphia by the British. Many of the early books, published in this country, were printed there.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Freaks Due To Pass From View

Political Freaks Developed In Present Campaign Will Sink Into Oblivion

QUEER QUINTET IS DIAGNOSED

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Building.

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—What does the future hold for the more freakish of the outstanding personalities developed by the current campaign?

When the campaign has ended will these peculiar folk sink back into inconspicuity or will some of them, at least, remain indefinitely in the national foreground?

Gov. Alf. M. Landon isn't a freak, either. Nor President Roosevelt. They are the normal antagonists.

Norman Thomas isn't a freak either. Nor is Earl Browder. Browder, in particular, decidedly is a radical, but he has an understandable program. His future and Thomas' are calculable. They will be licked overwhelmingly at the polls, and the expect to be. Afterward they will go right on leading their respective groups, as long as they live, in all likelihood.

QUEER QUINTET

The really queer quintet consists of Representative William Lemke, Dr. Francis E. Townsend. Father Charles E. Coughlin, the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith and Senator Rush Holt, especially since he did the keynoting at Father Coughlin's recent gathering in Cleveland.

Perhaps it is incorrect to say that Dr. Townsend's future is unpredictable. He is too old to last long.

Senator Holt's future also would be easy to prohpesy if he were coming up this year for re-election. He certainly would be beaten and that would dispose of him permanently. As an exceedingly babyish senator, he ought to be reasonably modest, or polite anyway. He undoubtedly is too "fresh" to make a hit with the average voter, however successful he seems to have been as a Coughlinite keynoter.

But Holt has until 1941 to serve on Capitol Hill.

This gives him quite a while to improve on his tactics. He obviously has undertaken to be a second Huey P. Long and as yet hasn't acquired the hang of it. The Kingfish was pretty blatant, but he said a great many things that plenty of rational Americans had to acquiesce in. Holt, to date, is merely blatant.

But the fact is that the West Virginian genuinely is a very bright young man. He behaved quite creditably early in his stay in Washington. Then, apparently his head swelled and he is trying to be a statesman prematurely.

Perhaps he will have recaptured his judgment by 1941 and be as good as Huey. That would make him a factor to be reckoned with for no one knows how long.

LEMKE EXPERIENCED

Representative Lemke, though as freakish as anyone, is an experienced politician.

He did not put all his eggs in one basket. Besides proclaiming himself presidentially, he saw to it that he likewise was renominated for the House of Representatives. Thus, even though defeated for the White House (a hazard that it's impossible to believe he doesn't recognize, despite his refusal to admit it) he still is pretty sure to remain in Congress—a sounding-board for lots more of his oratory.

If he has any strength at all, outside his home district, it must be mainly farm strength.

Assuming that agriculture is fairly well satisfied with its lot in the course of the next four years, he probably will have fizzled out entirely by 1940. Should the farmers continue discontented, however, or get more so, there is a chance that his potency will increase steadily.

SPELLBINDERS

As spellbinders the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin and the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith are about tied.

Father Coughlin has been so generally heard via the radio that it is unnecessary to comment on the quality of his eloquence. The Rev Gerald L. K. is not so well known on the air, but take it from me, he is a good talker. One may not agree with him, but he is entertaining to listen to. He has, in particular, what isn't so conspicuous in Father Coughlin, a lively sense of humor. Nor is he any such imitator of Huey Long as Senator Holt is. He preaches the Kingfish's philosophy, but he does it in his own fashion.

Indeed, of all the five prime political freaks of today, I would gamble on the Rev. Gerald L. K.'s appeal to last longest. I don't understand why his Louisiana congregation, which he left to join the Kingfish's organization, allowed him to get away from it. Even if one disagreed with every word he said, his sermons should have been a treat, I'd think.

ASSAYING THE FUTURE

Well, one of the two major parties will win November 3. It will not be one of the minor parties or groups. The Rooseveltites or the Landonites will be in a majority.

After that the freaks' respective futures will depend upon circumstances.

If economic conditions improve rapidly and substantially, the freaks' influence undoubtedly will frazzle out into nothingness.

If there isn't such an improvement, some of the freaks will gain strength.

Lemke may even attain real presidential proportions. He had presidential aspirations first; he is entitled to first consideration. Smith seems to have possibilities almost equal to William J. Bryan's. Father Coughlin isn't a born American. Dr. Townsend, around 70, isn't a presidential availability. Senator Holt will have to improve his technique considerably.

Or maybe, before 1940, some new freak will loom in the offing.

Youth To Face Negro Killer

Rufo Swain, Will Face Son Of Recently Slain Mrs. Florence Thompson Castle

SEEK TO LINK BRUTAL CRIMES

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Aug. 21—Rufo Swain, 27 year old negro policy game operator, who has confessed and been indicted for the wanton murder of a 24 year old bride, today will face the 7-year old son of another woman bludgeoned to death in her Chicago hotel room.

The scar face Swain, who confessed beating Mrs. Mary Louise Trammell to death in her Loop hotel last Saturday night, is suspected of the slaying of Mrs. Florence Thompson Castle, young night club hostess, last June 19.

Similiarity In Crime

Mrs. Castle's 7 year old son, Jimmy, told police he was awakened by a "dark man" who was beating his mother with a brick. He told police he would be able to identify his mother's assailant.

Jimmy and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Bert Thompson of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., are expected to arrive here today from Detroit where they have been visiting.

Similarity of the two crimes led police to question Swain concerning the Castle murder after he had confessed killing Mrs. Trammell.

The killer of Mrs. Castle scrawled "Black Legion game" on the mirror of her dressing table with lipstick. H. A. Rounds, a handwriting expert, reported the writing on the mirror and Swain's script had similar characteristics.

Man, 88, Never More Than 10 Miles From Home In 71 Years

(International News Service)

DENNISON, O.—An 88-year-old carpenter, Solomon Lawyer, has never been more than 10 miles away from his home in 71 years, he asserts.

He came to Dennison in 1865 from Hagerstown, Maryland, where he was born in 1848.

Since that time, his longest journey was to New Philadelphia in 1867 to receive treatment for a leg injury.

He declared: "That was the only time I was ever under a doctor's care and it was the last time I was away from Dennison."

He asserted he disliked traveling but did like Dennison.

"So, why should I go other places?" he asked.

Local Woman Tells Story About The "Covered Bridge"

Old Land Mark Made From Timbers Taken From Mrs. Huff's Ancestors Farm

The passing of the old covered bridge at Edinburg, is of interest to Mrs. Myrtle Huff, of English avenue, New Castle, from a historical point of view, due to the fact, the timbers used in its construction were taken from her great grandfathers woods, a section that had never been touched with any impliments.

He will be remembered as the late William Rowland, and he settled in that vicinity in 1829 where he bought 200 acres of land. It was a wilderness, where he erected a sawmill on Coffee Run, using water for power, in its operation. Old timers still point out where the old mill dam was located. Many of the heaviest and finest timbers used in the old covered bridge, a land mark that has attracted wide attention, are of black walnut.

Mr. Rowland was born in Beaver County in 1785 and died in Lawrence County in 1875.

That radiosodium some day may take the place of natural radium in the treatment of cancer, is the hope of Prof. E. O. Lawrence of the University of California. Working toward that end, the professor has already discovered a method for producing gamma rays from sodium.

In memory of Rudyard Kipling, a street in Ypres, Belgium, will be named "Avenue Kipling".

RUNS OVER CURB

Mary V. Boyle, R. D. 3, reported to city traffic police Thursday a car failed to stop at Falls and Jefferson street and this caused her car to run over the curb. Her car struck a flower pot, she reported.

Uruguayan Proposal Gets Cold Shoulder

United States Will Reject Proposal To Mediate Civil War In Spain

U. S. Will Not Join Foreign Countries In Any Non-Intervention Pacts

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The United States will not participate in the Uruguayan proposal to mediate the civil war in Spain. Nor will it join with European nations in any non-intervention pact.

Well-informed government sources today described both possibilities as fantastic.

Either would mean a complete reversal of America's policy of strict neutrality and her unequivocal determination to pursue a hands-off attitude in foreign quarrels.

Will Reject Plan

The United States' reply to the invitation of the president of Uruguay for American nations to join together to conciliate Spain's bloody war of extermination, these sources stated, is expected to be a polite but firm rejection. It is expected to be dispatched today.

This country's attitude was clearly enunciated, it was pointed out in diplomatic circles, by President Roosevelt in his Chautauqua, N. Y., speech Friday when he declared:

"We shun political commitments which might entangle us in foreign wars."

President Roosevelt called attention to repeated instances in which European nations have entered into treaties and then ignored them.

Strict Neutrality

Early in the conflict when the report was circulated from Paris that France, author of the non-intervention proposal, had drafted an invitation to the United States to adhere, the state department admonished its diplomatic and consular representatives in Spain to maintain the strictest neutrality between the two opposing forces.

Two airplane companies who had received orders from Spain were informed that it was the government's wish that neither side be supplied with war implements.

Due to a defect in the neutrality act, the president does not have the authority to declare an embargo in the case of civil war. The act applies only to a case of war between nations. This, alone, would bar the United States from entering a non-intervention pact as the government is powerless to enforce an embargo.

Instead Washington must pursue a course of moral suasion, appealing to the patriotism of American manufacturers not to ship military supplies to Spain.

Library Books
—And Comments
(By the Free Public Library)

"The Heritage of the Bounty" by Harry L. Shapiro rounds out the narrative of the Bounty covered by Nordhoff and Hall in the trilogy Mutiny on the Bounty, Men Against the Sea and Pitcairn Island. Dr. Shapiro's book is not only sound scientific writing but a popular style, telling the story of Pitcairn thro the six generations since the mutineers landed and settled on the island. No one who has enjoyed the Nordhoff books will be disappointed in the Heritage, as it is just as fascinating with the added flip of being modern and true.

Dr. Shapiro is an assistant curator of physical anthropology with the American Museum of Natural History.

With insight, sympathy and skill, Mrs. Dorothea Brande, in her book "Wake Up and Live!" gives advice on how to overcome the will to fail and replace it with the will to succeed. It is sensible and practical and its "twelve disciplines" will challenge any reader.

It is in demand at the public library.

To Make Appeal In Hewitt Case

Decision In Dismissed Mayhem Case To Go To Higher Court

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21—Contending that the trial judge who dismissed mayhem charges against two prominent San Francisco physicians for sterilizing Ann Cooper Hewitt, exceeded his authority, Deputy Prosecutor August Fourtner today was preparing an appeal to higher state courts.

Superior Judge Raglan C. Tuttle and defense attorney for the two physicians, Drs. Tilton E. Tillman and Samuel G. Boyd, brushed the contention aside.

The deputy prosecutor who failed to show malice on the part of the physicians in performing the sterilizing operation on the heiress contended that any doctor who performs even an appendectomy is technically guilty of mayhem. Judge Tuttle declared "such is an extreme view."

Meanwhile, the 22 year old heiress' attorney who has filed a $500,000 damage action in civil court against the doctors and Mrs. Maryon Cooper Hewitt, the girl's mother, definitely denied the suit would be dropped.

The suit accuses the physicians and Mrs. Hewitt of conspiring to deprive the girl of motherhood.

England Will Protect Ships In War District

Notify Both Sides In Spanish Internecine Struggle To Keep Hands Off Shipping

AIDS GERMANY INTENTION

(International News Service)

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The maritime might of Britain was aligned with that of Germany today to protect merchantmen operating in Spanish waters from any molestation by warships of either side in Spain's civil war.

The admiralty notified both loyalists and rebels that Britain will not tolerate any interference with British shipping and that British warships will take any "necessary measures" to reply to attacks upon British vessels engaged in legitimate activities.

With publication of the warning disclosure was made that Britain had lodged several protests with both sides in the conflict against incidents endangering British ships and that apologies had been received with assurances every effort would be made to prevent a recurrence.

The first of these protests was lodged even before the German merchant ship Kamerun was stopped and searched by a Spanish warship while enroute to Cadiz to pick up German refugees, but the British government kept the matter quiet as it did not wish to disturb in any way the non-intervention discussions being carried on.

With announcement of the protests, however, it was further revealed British warships have been escorting British merchantmen through the Straits of Gibraltar even since the Spanish Civil War broke out.

Apologies for past incidents have been accepted with a stern warning to Spain they must not be repeated.

Workers Are Paid Double By Mistake

Discover Error Of $181,000 In Payroll Of Disorganized R. R. A.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—During this time last year when vacation expenses and costs of new fall clothes are the major problems of the average worker, a small army of federal employes were receiving windfall pay checks because of a bookkeeping blunder.

A total of $181,000 was over-paid the workers of the disorganized rural rehabilitation administration and the resettlement adminstration, which took over its work, J. C. Foulis, finance director, reported today.

Of this amount only $20,000 remains to be collected from the doubly-paid workers who have since been dropped or have left the service.

The reorganization of the RA's far-flung field staff with workers retained from the R. R. A. caused payrolls publications which resulted in some workers receiving pay checks from the treasury here and also from the treasury's agents stationed at R. A. bases.

Auditors quickly found the mistake and started to collect the amounts the workers were overpaid, Foulis said.

Soldiers Who Are In No Hurry To Draw Bonus Money

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—More than 9000 veterans in the Philadelphia area eligible for soldiers' bonus have not yet applied for payment according to Harry J. Crosson, regional manager of the veteran's administration here.

He declared that 6000 of these veterans have not previously made any loans on their adjusted service certificates.

"There are a number of reasons for this," said Crosson. "I think that the majority of these vets, who do not need the money urgently, are simply holding back and keeping their certificates as an investment. The interest on the bonds, even though they have not called for them, goes on just the same."

Say Mussolini Queries Hitler

Asks Attitude Of Germany On Occupation Of Balearic Islands By Italy

GERMANS DENY REPORT TODAY

By PIERRE J. HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—Europe's Fascist lineup may be strengthened as a result of Spain's civil war, it was expected today, as unconfirmed reports circulated here that Premier Mussolini is sounding out Germany on her attitude should Italy occupy the Balearic Islands.

Official German quarters flatly denied the reports concerning Mussolini, which buzzed through Berlin while Chancellor Hitler assumed direct control of Germany's war fleet.

The Fascist nations were expected to increase their solidarity at a reported forthcoming parley at Hinterries, Switzerland, where Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary, Franz Von Papen, German ambassador to Vienna, Ambassador Salata, Italian envoy to Vienna and possibly Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg, of Austria, may meet as "cavationists" during the next few days.

Meanwhile, Hitler, from his Alpine home above Obersalzburg, personally directed movements of German warships in Spanish waters or enroute there.

BURGLAR'S KEYS MAKE ODD DISPLAY

(International News Service)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—One of the strangest displays ever to be shown here is now on exhibit at the local police headquarters.

It is an odd and sundry display made up of more than 300 keys, blank keys and tools for key manufacture, once the property of Vance Forrest Bordeleon, notorious hotel room burglar, who has achieved notoriety in police annals of the southwest by a record of more than 15 arrests.

The extensive collection was seized by local policemen when Bordeleon was arrested here in 1934.

The hopeless task of a third party is to get most of the people mad about the same thing at the same time.

Expect Traffic To Be Heavy In New Wilmington

Police Chief Works Out Traffic Regulations For Saturday, August 22

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Aug. 21.—Traffic conditions on Saturday will be the heaviest New Wilmington has ever seen. From the south, traffic will be routed by way of South Market street and New Castle street, while from the east, traffic will be routed by way of East Neshannock avenue. The entire traffic problem Saturday will be handled by national, state and local police officials.

A system, worked out by Police Chief Glenn Martin and Burgess Wallace McKean and approved by national and state traffic men, is expected to take care of the overflow traffic through New Wilmington. Parking will be strictly prohibited on certain streets in New Wilmington as follows:

No parking will be permitted on either side of Market street from the diamond north to the city limits.

No parking will be permitted on either side of Market street south from the corner of Market and Vine to the city limits.

No parking will be permitted on either side of Neshannock avenue west from the Shields house to the city limits.

No parking will be permitted on either side of Neshannock avenue east from the diamond to the city limits.

No parking will be permitted on either side of New Castle street from Neshannock avenue to the city limits.

All New Wilmington citizens will be asked to park their cars in their garages, on their lots, or in their driveways so as to avoid traffic congestion on any of the streets or alleys in New Wilmington, and also to keep the streets open in case the fire truck should be called.

Fourteen or fifteen traffic men will be sent to aid the New Wilmington police department, according to Chief Martin, both in directing traffic and to prevent parking in forbidden streets. The special traffic rules will go into effect Friday night at midnight and will continue for 24 hours.

Safety Pin Is Removed From Girl's Throat

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21.—The bronchoscopic operation in which a safety pin was removed from the esophagus of 10-months-old Jean Seagraves was successful, but today everybody concerned would like to know what became of the second pin.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Saegraves of Pennsgrove, N. J., are certain the child swallowed both of the pins that disappeared from a table in their home. Doctors at Jefferson hospital, this city, are equally certain that X-ray examinations showed no sign of a second pin being inside little Jean.

No wonder good-lookers are dumb. With mirrors everywhere, they never have time to read anything.

THE GOSPEL FOR ALL MEN

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

John 3:16—"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life."

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Aug. 23 is Acts 10:1-11:18, and Romans 1: 13-17, especially Acts 11:5-18 and Romans 1:15-17 the Golden Text being John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him him should not perish, but have eternal life.)

ALTHOUGH our Lord Jesus manifested utmost breadth of sympathy for all races and classes of people and told his disciples plainly of, "other sheep not of this fold whom he must bring that there might be one fold and one Shepherd" and although at his ascension he had plainly commanded them to "preach the gospel to every creature" more than 10 long years had passed before the church he established really opened the doors of fellowship and spiritual privilege to other nationalities and races than Jews. And when the new idea of broader fellowship was born it was attended by birth pangs of the sharpest sort. Race prejudice dies hard in every age.

Peter's Sympathies Broadened

God had prepared Cornelius, a Gentile centurion at Caesarea, to receive the gospel, sending him a vision of an angel with instructions to send messengers to the apostle Peter to ask him to come and preach to them. But God know that he would have a harder time with the apostle to get him to carry his gospel to this gentile. So God sent a vision to Peter, and repeated the vision three times, showing him a large sheet let down from heaven, containing "all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and birds of the heaven." There came also a voice commanding Peter to "rise" kill and eat." To this Peter replied, "Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath ever entered my mouth.' To which Peter heard the heavenly voice reply: "What God hath cleansed, make not thou common." In other words, "Don't be more strict or more conservative than God himself."

In immediate connection with this vision and voice came a visit of three gentile messengers from Cornelius petitioning Peter to come with them to Caesarea to preach the gospel to him and his household. The vision was not wasted on Peter. He had sense and grace enough to put three and three together when the Spirit bade him go with them, making no distinction." And as he preached the gospel to this house full of gentiles, "the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on the apostles at the beginning." Here was a repetition of Pentecost, probably even including the tongues of fire.

The Church Catches Step

The church at Jerusalem became nervous at the news of Peter's radical action at Caesarea, and called him upon the carpet to explain his unorthodox ministry in receiving gentiles into full membership in the church. It was a critical moment in the life of the church. But Peter wisely showed the hand of God as it led both him and Cornelius and recounted how God poured out his Spirit upon them in a veritable gentile Pentecost! "If then God gave unto them the like gift as he did also unto us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?" The church caught the point and made no further move to "withstand God," but gave the new movement its blessing. It had taken a long while to do it, but in that action the church at last caught step with God in his onward march towards the realization of the eternal divine ideal of a universal brotherhood of all men through the gospel, "the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

Air Condition Landon's Suite At Castleton

Governor Landon's private suite high up in The Castleton will be air-conditioned during his stay here, Thomas M. Boyle, manager of the hotel, revealed today.

"The suite of Governor Landon will be equipped with a temporary cooling system by the Pennsylvania Power company," said Mr. Boyle. "Even if the mercury goes up, the rooms of Mr. Landon will be very comfortable."

American flags were draped thruout the hotel lobby today as leaders rushed final preparations for the coming of the distinguished guest. Outside, the national colors were displayed and the hotel was splendidly decorated.

Launch Campaign For New Library

"Buy A Stone" Drive For Westminster Library Fund Is Being Inaugurated

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Aug. 21—Westminster college launched a "Buy a Stone" campaign today in an effort to dispose of 4,000 stones of Pennsylvania sandstone, to be used in the new McGill Memorial library, expected to be built this year.

The new library is to be constructed of native Pennsylvania limestone, quarried near New Wilmington, and of similar architecture as Old Main Memorial and Browne Hall, girls' dormitory.

Alumni are being asked to buy 1,000 of the stones, the remainder to be sold to friends of the college, at $25 each.

The top classes in amount of contribution made are the classes of 1899, 1906, 1915, 1907 and 1909. In number of contributors the class of 1882 was in the lead.

Latest plans for the site of the new library call for its place facing Browne Hall to form an internal quadrangle with Old Main Memorial on the north end.

The new McGill Memorial library is to be named in memory of the Rev. Ralph G. McGill, missionary, tragically drowned near Alexandria, Egypt, in 1924, while attempting to rescue an English woman caught by the undertow.

The hand-worker is superior in one way. When he turns out a job of work, he doesn't call it his brainchild.

Roosevelt And Landon To Meet At Iowa Capitol

Expect Crowd Of 200,000 At Ceremony In Des Moines, Iowa, September 1

(International News Service)

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 21.—The unprecedented meeting of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and his Republican rival, Gov. Alfred M. Landon of Kansas, has been tentatively set for Sept. 1 at the Iowa capitol here.

A crowd which may reach 200,000 persons is expected to hear the president the afternoon of that day in an address from an outdoor platform on the lawn of the capitol building.

Candidates To Meet.

These tentative plans for the meeting of the two titans of the American political arena, along with other midwestern governors for the purpose of discussing the drought problem, were revealed by Gov. Clyde Herring.

The governor, who spoke Wednesday night in St. Paul, Minn., talked with the president by long distance telephone. Reached by telephone from here, the governor said he was informed President Roosevelt would spend the entire day in Des Moines.

Leaving Washington next Tuesday on his swing through the drought area, the president is expected to go first to the Dakotas, then to Minnesota, and then to Des Moines.

Although Gov. Alfred M. Landon has indicated he will attend the conference with Roosevelt and the governors of Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma—all Democrats except Landon—hies plans are still indefinite.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Edward Blews of 923 Adams street, who was injured as the result of a fall off of a ladder, has returned to his home from the New Castle hospital.

Writers Enter Protest To WPA

Salary Reductions Are Protested By Writers For WPA In State

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21.—Threatening a state-wide strike if their demands are not met, workers on WPA writing projects in Pennsylvania today prepared to file a protest at Harrisburg against salary reductions.

Even Edgar Allen Poe would fail to make the grade under a reclassification compelling writers to have a college education in order to get a salary of $94 a month, the writers complained. Those without collegiate education and a major in certain subjects were reduced to $84 a month in the shake-up.

Following a conference with Gov. George H. Earle, ill in a hotel here, in which the governor pledged his support, the writers chose a committee to call on Edward N. Jones,

That great army of Imperial Rome of ancient days was never suffered to remain idle. In times of peace they were always employed in different ways, building roads, bridges, canals, harbors, and even planting vineyards and stamping out locust plagues.

Some people think they are educated when they don't even know which of Popeye's eyes is out.

Port Of Cadiz Is Blockaded

Spanish Naval Blockade Of Rebel Port Is Now In Progress

WARNINGS ARE BEING DEFIED

(International News Service)

LONDON, Aug. 21.—Germany's warning that "force will be met with force", and British notification today that no Spanish blockade in the Mediterranean would be tolerated were defiantly brushed aside by a Spanish naval blockade of the rebel port of Cadiz.

Back and forth across the Cadiz harbor, the Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Gibraltar wired today, patrol the cruiser Libertad, the destroyer Lepanto and a submarine, covering the "beat" from Cape Roche to Point Cemaron so that no foreign ship suspected of carrying contraband can enter.

Deflection of the German ship Kamerun from Cadiz led yesterday to a sharp protest from Berlin, with instructions to the German fleet in the Mediterranean—soon to be increased to 14 ships—to protect all German vessels in Spanish waters.

Word of the Cadiz blockade coincided with an article in the Manchester Guardian saying German and Italian ships in the Mediterranean are in constant radio communication with rebel ships and rebel headquarters.

END THE FEEL-PUNK, DRAG-FOOT DAYS

Dull headaches, poor appetite, sleeplessness are warning signs. You feel low—hate to work. These symptoms may point to constipation due to "low-bulk" meals.

Why throw these days out of your life — particularly when regular habits make you feel so good. Get "bulk" by eating a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

There's nothing experimental about ALL-BRAN. Millions of people have used it successfully. Scientific tests prove it is safe and effective. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily. Stubborn cases may require ALL-BRAN oftener. Serve as a cereal, or cook into delicious recipes.

What an improvement over pills and drugs. ALL-BRAN is a food—you buy it at the grocery store. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

McCloskey And Son Are Fined

Former Johnstown Mayor And Others Pay Fines Of $100 In Police Court

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 21.—Arrested yesterday on charges of disorderly conduct, State Athletic Commissioner Eddie McClosky, former mayor of Johnstown, today was fined $100 and costs when given a hearing in police court before Mayor Daniel J. Shields.

McClosky was taken into custody with his son, Eddie, Jr., and two brothers, William and Charles, shortly after a denunciation of Mayor Shields and several other prominent politicians appeared in McCloskey's paper, "The Derby." The others were also fined $100 and costs.

Famous as the mayor who invited the "jobless army" to Johnstown as his guests during the "hunger march" of 1932, McCloskey said through his attorney, Bruce A. Sciotti, he would appeal the case to the county court.

Barber Eats His Way To Fame, May Get Stage Offer

Hatboro, Pa., Barber Eats 366 Apples In Two Hours Time For Record

(International News Service)

HATBORO, Pa., Aug. 21.—Tony De Laurentis, 37-year-old Hatboro barber who munched his way to fame two years ago, today had a new record under his belt—literally.

The record was the 366 apples he ate in two hours while gaping townsmen watched him through the windows of his shop. With two men peeling and slicing the fruit, De Laurentis broke with ease his 1935 mark of 240 apples in one hour and 56 minutes.

Tony squeezed each piece of fruit dry and ate slowly, but steadily to victory. "How do you feel?" he was asked as he finished.

"I feel fine," he grinned. "A little hungry, but I eat lunch soon. Just the regular meal—two pounds of spaghetti, a couple of loaves of bread, a steak and some wine, maybe two quarts." The apple feat increased his weight from 180 to 202 pounds.

Tony began his yearly apple marathon two years ago, downing a paltry 130 in one hour and 34 minutes—thereby getting his name in papers as far away as London. Tony is 39, unmarried and is considering a career.

"Since yesterday I have 30 phone calls from night clubs to put on a show. I think I'll go to New York," he confided. Just to keep in trim between the apple bouts, he sometimes appears as a feature at local picnics. His last such meal consisted of: six chickens, four gallons of beer, six quarts of wine, four pounds of spaghetti, two loaves of bread and two quarts of ice cream.

Landis Orders Babe Herman To Rejoin His Team

Landis Hears Two Sides Of Herman-Cincinnati Club Argument, Makes Decision

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—After hearing both sides in a bonus dispute, Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis today directed Floyd (Babe) Herman, hard-hitting outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds, to rejoin his club.

Herman, who claimed the Cincinnati club failed to pay him the bonus for "hustling" that it promised, deserted the team and came here to place his case before Landis. Besides hearing Herman today, the commissioner also heard Larry MacPhail, president, and Charley Dressen, manager of the Reds, who are in town to play the Cubs.

Landis directed Herman to rejoin the Reds, and then told both parties to submit their salary differences to him for settlement at the end of the season.

Herman would not indicate whether he would obey the order.

Don't Carry Large Sums Of Money

Police authorities today issued a warning to persons to not carry large sums of money on their person tomorrow as experience has taught them that pickpocts follow big crowds. The city is expected to be jammed early tomorrow morning and up to noon and also following the Landon speech at West Middlesex. They also warned persons to lock their doors when they go to West Middlesex. Automobiles also should be locked, the police stated.

Smokers do tremendous damage to forest lands each year, a survey shows. That news leaves a city dweller cold, but you should hear him holler at a burnt spot on the living room rug.

for a Few Dollars More or Less Match Packard 120 Against the Field

..... Learn from the car itself, without the slightest obligation, why it is today's outstanding motor car success. See how Packard has given this low-priced car its exclusive lines—the only lines of lasting identity among all the 1936 models. Compare its performance and riding comfort. Drive this Packard at least five minutes and you will want to own it at least five years.

CONSIDER THESE IMPORTANT FACTORS BEFORE YOU BUY A NEW CAR

Learn What a Big Part of the Cost Your Old Car Will Cover

It may be a surprise to you to learn how far the allowance for your present car will go toward the purchase of a Packard 120.
Of course, it is impossible to quote figures that will suit every situation. But in a surprising number of cases, the used car allowance equals or exceeds the down payment. Without obligation, we will appraise your car.

Discover the Flexibility of the Payment Plan

The monthly payments on a Packard 120 can be arranged to suit your income. Actually, these payments are never over a few dollars more than those you would make on some lower priced car. And remember, your Packard 120 will still be smart years after the last payment has been forgotten—thanks to Packard's policy of avoiding radical yearly style changes.

Learn How Low the Upkeep and Service Charges Are

A Packard 120 is, we believe, the most service-free car in America. And such routine service as you do require costs but little. We will be glad to prove this to you before you buy the car and can show you that typical charges for labor and parts actually average a little less than on the other prominent cars in the price class of the Packard 120.

These are some of the "money" reasons for choosing a Packard 120. But the most eloquent reasons for Packard 120 ownership will be given you by the car itself. Arrange today to borrow a new Packard 120 from us. Drive the car in traffic and on the open road. Compare it point for point with any car you may be thinking of buying. Do this—and we are confident that you will want a Packard 120 as you have never wanted any new car.

WELL FINISHED LAMBS BRING HIGH PREMIUMS

Due to dry weather and extreme heat many Pennsylvania lambs are going to market this fall lacking condition. This is true, no doubt, of lambs from other sections of the country under conditions of this kind. Well finished lambs always command an additional premium in the market.

The wise farmer has arranged to wean his lambs when they are from 3½ to 4½ months old and turn them in on some temporary pasture. Be sure that this pasture contains shade and plenty of fresh water. Some grain fed to these lambs will bring a good market price.

Handling the lamb crop in this manner has a two-fold benefit. First, the shepherd collects additional revenue from the added finish his lambs carry, and, secondly, by taking the lambs away from the ewes his ewe flock has an opportunity to gain in condition before the breeding season arrives. This means a larger lamb crop for 1937. These lambs should be drenched at least three times, three weeks apart, after they have been weaned.

There is probably no other class of livestock that is penalized so severely in the market as a half fat lamb. This year under present conditions proper finish should pay a large premium.

FERTILIZE NOW BEFORE 1937 FRUIT PLANTS BUD

Like most fruit plants, the strawberry forms fruit buds for the 1937 crop during the summer of 1936. This fruit bud formation will probably start in Pennsylvania about the middle of August—a little before this date in southern Pennsylvania and later in the northern portions of the state. Experimental evidence indicates that nitrogenous fertilizers may often be profitably used just preceding this initiation of fruit buds.

An application at this time may encourage runner formation to some extent, but has its main value in encouraging the development of flower buds. Both the number of flower clusters and the number of flowers per cluster may be increased by an application of quickly available nitrogenous fertilizer at this season. Experiments have shown further that the percentage of flowers which set and develop into berries next spring may be increased by this treatment.

An application of nitrate of soda or sulphate of ammonia ranging from 100 to 250 pounds per acre is recommended. In case an early spring application has been made and the plants have good color and a vigorous appearance at this time it is likely that a light application of 125 to 150 pounds per acre will be sufficient. Patches in poorer condition should receive a more liberal application.

Care must be taken to prevent the fertilizer from burning the foliage. If it is applied when the foliage is dry it may be broadcasted over the plants and immediately brushed from the leaves with a broom or piece of brush. In case the runners are not too numerous it may be a safer practice to apply the fertilizer around the individual plants in such a way as to avoid any contact with the leaf surface.

MOST LAWNS GO THROUGH A SUMMER REST PERIOD

Recent rains have improved the scorched lawns of the state and the dead-looking grass is becoming green once more. Most grasses, bluegrass and fescue particularly, normally go through a rest period during the summer which, unless conditions are particularly severe, is not injurious.

Most lawns would be greatly benefited now by an application of superphosphate at the rate of 20-25 pounds to 1,000 square feet using 16% or 20% material. Ground limestone, if needed, could be applied at the same time at the rate of 50-75 pounds to 1,000 square feet unless a test indicates that lime is not needed. The superphosphate will help the grass to recover from the effects of the drought, will build deeper root systems, and will help to discourage the lawn weeds. The lime will not encourage the lawn weeds at the expense of the grasses—in fact the reverse is true. The lime will help to make the superphosphate more available to the plants.

During the remaining months of the year it will be distinctly advantageous to the lawn if the mower is raised to cut it 1½ inches. This permits a greater leaf area wherby the plants can increase the amount of food manufactured, thus encouraging a thicker sod that will help to crowd out the weeds.

If crabgrass is present in the lawn now, rake it up well with a steel rake and catch the clippings. Do this several times to prevent seed production. In areas of solid crabgrass, remove the offender before it goes to seed and plan to fertilize and reseed early this fall. Do not wait until next spring to reseed areas where the crabgrass has smothered the good grasses. This is a common error of lawn management.

Many lawns badly infested with weeds such as crabgrass and buckhorn are being treated with chemicals which control the weeds but do not seriously injure the grasses. This procedure involves some risk, but you may obtain information in regard to this method at the Agricultural Extension Association Office, No. 206 Post Office building, New Castle.

One should keep in mind the principles of good lawn management:

1. Lime—A simple soil test will determine if it is needed.
2. Fortilizer—A good complete fertilizer (4-12-4, 5-10-5) in the fall.
3. Good seed—Consult Extension Circular on Lawns, No. 160.
4. High cutting—An essential for bluegrass lawns (1½ inches).

COLTS NEED TRAINING WHEN THEY ARE YOUNG

The training of a colt should begin at an early age. Foals that are handled and halter-broken when young take the presence of man as a matter of course and are easily approached in the pasture and stall.

The first lesson may consist of fitting a leather or web halter on the foal. The next day tie the colt in the stall with its mother for a half hour or so. Watch to see that it does not injure itself in any way. This lesson should be repeated until the colt stands quietly then it is ready for leading. If no helper is available, start leading the colt with its mother. Make the lesson short. No progress can be made with a colt that is tired or sulky. Two lessons a day may be given.

When the colt is not in motion, teach it to stand squarely on its legs with head up. Select a spot where its front feet will be a little higher than its hind feet. Don't expect a colt to learn everything in one or two lessons. After it walks well at the halter, teach it to trot. Failure to halter, brush, and handle the feet and legs of foals when young may cause trouble later. Outdoor exercise is essential to proper development and health. Foals should have daily outdoor exercise in winter as well as summer or spring.

At from five to six months of age, the foal should be weaned. Foals should not be allowed to run with older horses during the first winter because of poor chances at feed and chances of injury. Liberal feeding at this time is essential as the foal makes its greatest development the first year of its life. "A stunted or starved foal the first year means a stunted horse." Liberal feeding and liberal exercise is essential.

The horse is naturally an outdoor animal. Its ills begin with close quarters, poor feeding, and lack of exercise. Successful horse raising means to make conditions as natural as possible. The feet of the foal require care as it is often necessary to trim the hoofs to keep feet even and level, and thus relieve strain of uneven growth. Following the first year the foal that has been fed and handled to best advantage can be carried on more roughage and pasture and less grain. Grain will be required only during the winter months if good pasture and good roughage are available.

CLOTHES WON'T WRINKLE WHEN PACKED CAREFULLY

Have you ever wished that someone would invent a way of packing a suitcase so the clothes wouldn't wrinkle? If you have been embarrassed by wearing garments that were very mussed after being packed for several days you will be glad to know that there is a way to avoid these grievances which might otherwise spoil a delightful trip, says Miss Mary Vogle, home Economics for Lawrence county.

There is an art in packing that is well worth developing, both for the time it saves and for the satisfaction of having garments presentable when unpacked. Manufacturers are giving much thought to luggage and combination hatboxes equipped with hangers. These make it possible to hang dresses and wraps in an upright position so that they will be ready to wear at a moment's notice.

Cases with hangers are a great improvement over the flat cases in which dresses are shunted from one side to the other unless the bag is packed to its fullest capacity. But many of us do not travel enough to feel that we can afford a new case when we already have a good flat suitcase on hand. If we are going to use a flat case there is a way to pack clothing that never fails—that of rolling instead of folding garments. You may be a bit skeptical, but once you try t you will be thoroughly convinced that this method cannot be improved upon.

Spread a dress on a flat surface being careful to keep all wrinkles out. Place upon this some other garments, another dress or two, guarding the smoothness of each one, and then perhaps a slip or a long nightgown. Fold these lengthwise and then place a bit of soft underwear which has been folded near the top of the dress and begin to roll hte bundle of clothes tightly but smoothly into a compact roll, being careful to allow no wrinkles or creases to slip in. The more thickness between folds the smaller the danger of pressing a crease in the material, says Miss Vogle.

This roll should be about as wide as the case. Several rolls similarly made should be placed side by side, filling the space tightly in order to prevent slipping. Fill in with newspaper if necessary to have a tightly filled case. To use space, shoes may be packed without shoetrees by stuffing them with hose.

This method of packing was followed successfully oy one traveler who went to Europe with a suitcase and never had to resort to pressing anything with an iron, and never had need to apologize for her appearance.

England Wants Joe Louis For Bout With Foord

Make Flattering Offer To Mike Jacobs To Get Louis To Fight In England

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Negotiations have been opened for a Joe Louis-Ben Foord fight in London, Promoter Mike Jacobs announced Thursday.

Upon receipt of a cablegram from Trevor Wignall, internationally famous British sports writer acting in behalf of a syndicate of sportsmen, asking terms for appearance of the Brown Bomber abroad, Jacobs set the figure at $100,000 with the privilege of taking 42½ per cent of the receipts.

Foord Is Puncher.

He also stipulated that expenses for the trip would be expected, and asked when and where the fight will be held.

Foord, a murderous puncher from South Africa, recently won the British empire heavyweight championship by knocking out Jack Petersen of England.

Jacobs, who holds a contract on Louis for all appearances during the next four years, said there was strong likelihood of the match being closed, everything depending upon whether he and the syndicate could get together on terms.

County Commissioner Floyd Cotton, who has been checking up welfare cases, has about completed work in the city, but has about ten townships yet to visit.

County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland calls attention to the fact that this is the last month that taxes can be paid at face. After September 1 duplicates are given into the hands of collectors.

Thursday was the last day for filing executions on properties to be sold by the sheriff at the September term of court. There are about 35 cases on the list. Delinquest taxes on properties is largely responsible for many of the sales, as the taxes are undermining the mortgages.

Surrender of forty-seven oil and gas leases on properties in North Beaver and Little Beaver townships, has been made, the surrenders being recorded at the register and recorder's office. The territory has been pretty thoroughly tested, and while some oil and gas has been found, it is not in such quantities as to warrant drilling on the land covered by many of the leases. The leases surrendered were in the name of Thomas B. Hyland.

Attorney Mont L. Ailey, executor in the estate of the late Nancy A. Mars, has filed a scire facias sur mortgage against Lizzie A. Brine. The amount of the claim is $902.30 with costs. Mortgage covers properties in the Fourth ward and in Shenango township.

Letters of administration have been granted by Register and Recorder William R. Hanna, as follows: Estate of Elizabeth Lockhart, late of this city, to Clyde N. Lockhart; estate of John A. Gibson, late of Mahoning township, to George Leroy Gibson; estate of Edwin E. McConahy, late of New Castle, to Melvin I. McConahy; estate of Ernest A. Seck, late of New Castle, to Attorney Joseph R. McFate.

John Black, of Washington township, conferred with the county commissioners today relative to the improvement of the Potter Run road between the Perry highway and the East Brook-Volant road. This road was on the list for improvement last spring and the county commissioners and Superintendent John Shaw of the State Highway Department, spent considerable time securing releases from property owners. They were all secured and it was expected that the road would be the first one to be taken up, but the highway department suddenly announced that there were no funds available. Mr. Black, who owns a farm on the road, says that it is in bad condition. He found the commissioners willing to go head so far as they are concerned, but as the matter now stands, it is up to the highway department.

In the estate of Henry Dout, who died recently in Trumbull county, Ohio, a certificate showing that letters of administration have been issued to Mary A. Hummell, has been filed at the register and recorder's office in Lawrence county, as decedent had interests here.

The state revenue department advises that during the month of June 876 automobiles were stolen in Pennsylvania, of which about 245 were recovered.

Salvagers Hunt Million Dollars On Floor Of Sea

(International News Service)

JERSEY CITY, N. J. Aug. 21—Lured by a salty yarn of $1,000,000 in silver lying in a rotted hulk at the bottom of the Atlantic, a band of salvagers sailed Thursday on a treasure quest.

Thomas P. Connelly, head of the party and one-time warden of the jail here, was not talkative about the adventure.

Meanwhile stevedores placed the last of provisions on his ship, the constellation, an old four-masted schooner, he would only admit the treasure lies on the ocean floor," a sixty-hour sail south from New York."

The silver, he said, was from a steamer which met disaster 25 years ago, but the crew was thrilled by reports the hulk was that of a ship transporting a payroll to British soldiers in the revolution.

The salvagers were preparing for a two-months trip.

Glasser Hits Home Run In Second And Bessemer Bows, 1-0

TEAMS ARRANGE TO PLAY SERIES

A. S. & T. P. defeated Bessemer 1 to 0, before 3,000 fans for the second half championship of the Lawrence County Baseball league on the Rosena site Thursday. It was one of the best games of the year and league officials have arranged for a five games series between the two teams to decide the season championship, the first of which will be played Sunday on the Rosena field. An admission will be charged.

The game was a pitcher's battle between Gunnett and Nord with the former having the edge despite the fact he had only 24 hours rest between games. Glasser won for the Tin Mill with a home run in the second and Fruitt killed a Bessemer rally when he executed a lightning double play in the last inning.

EQUIPMENT TO BE PASSED OUT

Head Coach Davey Morgan Boyd will get a glimpse of his 1936 Union high football material on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the boys will gather at the Union high building for the first meeting of the year.

The first practice will take place next Tuesday at the Union high field. School will start the week of September 8. The boys will be measured for equipment on Saturday and everything will be in readiness to start rehearsals next Tuesday.

Coach Boyd expects upwards of 50 young men to report this year. The Unions will have three weeks of practice before opening up with Ellwood City at Ellwood on Saturday, September 19.

The first week of practice will be at night to get away from the intense heat. Running trunks will be used for the first week instead of the regulation football pants as they will be cooler.

Pirates Defeat Chicago Cubs

Pittsburgh Puts Further Crimp In Aspirations Of Chicago Cubs

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 21—Charlie Grimm's Cubs, who a few weeks ago looked like the same miracle team which last season won 21 straight and the National League pennant, today gradually were folding up under the terrific pace set by the Cardinals and Giants.

There was a time when the Cubs looked like certain winners of the current race, but their downfall began when they met the Cards in a couple of recent series and they are getting no better all the time.

Pirates Top Cubs

They dropped three games behind the second place Giants yesterday and 3½ behind the Cards when they blew a seven-run lead and were out lasted by the Pirates 8 to 7, in 11 innings.

Again Manager Grimm mustered his best pitching talent—Carelton, French and Warneke, but they allowed 15 hits while the Cubs were being held to a paltry six by three other flingers, including Birkofer, who scored the victory.

The Cards took advantage of that situation with another hair-raising win, beating the Reds 4 to 2 with three runs in the ninth, giving Dizzy Dean his 21st triumph of the year.

In the only other National League game, Weir and Reis hurled the Bees to a 5 to 1 win against the Phils whose Bowman went the route but was pounded freely.

The only American League game gave the Tigers an 8 to 4 victory over the Browns who couldn't stand early prosperity and gave up a 4 to 2 lead in the seventh.

Cherokee To Meet Malone

Malone Said To Be Protege Of George Tragos And John Pesek

ROTHBERG TO MEET HEFFNER

When fans trot through the gates at Centennial field Monday night they will see in the main bout two wrestlers whose aggregate weight will approximate 500 pounds, the grapplers being Leon Grandovich and Allan Eustace, the former having been reared in Russia and Eustace in Kansas.

Grandovich matched holds with Chief Saunooke here several weeks ago and was pinned with a body slam. The Indian's 318 pounds proved too much for Grandovich's 245. When he steps out against Eustace he will find the Kansan has inches on him as Eustace stands six feet four inches.

According to the Russian's press agent he served in the Rusian army then escaped from the country and after travelling through Europe, came here. Eustace was reared in the west and has been wrestling for 10 years.

In the semi-final Abe Rothberg, one of the Jewish contenders for mat honors, will take on Dutch Heffner, who lost to Leo Wychoff some weeks ago. Rothberg, 220, was an all-eastern football tackle at Boston university and claims to have defeated Abe Coleman of New York in a mat bout.

Rough-House Nelson and Marchoni, both popular here are scheduled for a bout and in the first preliminary Jesse Joy, also known as Cherokee Charlie, will take on Eddie Malone of Ireland. Malone was taught to wrestle by George Tragos and John Pesek at St. Paul.

The last time Cherokee Charlie wrestled here he gave an imitation of a real Tarzan. Not only did he leap on the top rope of the ring but walked half way to the next post then went through a series of stunts that had the crowd on edge.

According to Promoter Peter Askounes, the first bout will start promptly at 8:30 p. m. He believes he had one of the best cards he can present.

HERE IS X-RAY OF BRADDOCK'S INJURED HAND

Claiming that bone growths in his left hand required an operation that might result in calling off his fight with Max Schmeling, Sept. 26, Jim Braddock, world's heavyweight champion, appeared before the New York boxing commission with X-ray photographs of the injured member. Thickening of the bony joint on the thumb and an old growth between the little and third finger are shown in the X-ray. Braddock's left hand is shown at left. The champion's manager claims the growth brings pressure on a nerve, which causes deadening of the arm.

Firemen And Hillsville In Tie Game 4-4

Darkness Calls Halt To Fine Game At Lee Avenue Field Thursday Night

Sixth Ward Firemen and Hillsville of the Lawrence County league played to a 4-4 tie last night at Lee Avenue field. The game was called in the first half of the sixth inning when darkness interferred.

The Firemen started off to a good start, scoring in the first and fourth innings and holding their slim margin until the sixth inning when Hillsville scored four times in their half of the sixth inning. The Firemen came to bat in their half of the sixth and scored twice and the game was called after two men had been retired.

Witherow On Mound

For the Firemen, Dick Witherow started on the knoll and hurled a steady game throughout the first five innings of the game but in the sixth inning the Hillsville lads got together and slammed out four hits in a row. At this time, Thornton replaced Witherow and completed the inning. On the combined offerings of these two pitchers, Hillsville pounded out eight hits for a total of four runs.

For Hillsville, Jewie Coen took the mound and also hurled a fine game throughout the five innings he toiled. He fanned six of the Somke-eaters. J. Pepe relieved Coen in the sixth inning and finished the game.

Landis To Rule In Herman Case

Floyd 'Babe'' Herman Appeals To Judge Landis To Get Salary Tangle Straightened

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Aug 21—The mysterious case of Mr Floyd Herman onetime clown prince of the Brooklyns and at present the black sheep of the Cincinnati Reds, remained a mysterious case today

Herman, better known as "Babe", who quit the Reds in something of a huff and considerably miffed over the alleged non-payment of a bonus for "hustling," was located registered in a loop hotel under an assumed name

Decision Today

The southpaw slugger declared he had presented his case to Commissioner Kenesaw M Landis, who would render a decision today

Landis, however, declared he had not seen the Babe

Herman had a ready explanation for that

"The judge doesn't want to fight it out in the newspapers, because he doesn't want to appear to be putting the Cincinnati club in a bad light That's why he has been denying he's seen me," Babe explained.

'My contract with the Reds stipulate I was to get a bonus of $500 a month if I 'hustled'. Well, I haven't been getting that bonus and I believe I'm entitled to it.

Play Cubs Today

"There's nothing I'd rather do than play ball, and if I get the dough that's coming to me I'm ready to step right in there again and play the same hustling ball I did before," the Babe continued.

Nothing was mentioned concerning Herman's batting average of the moment—.254.

Nor was it considered significant the Reds will be in Chicago today to play the Cubs.

Gridders At Shenango To Train Early

Coach Frank Nocera Orders Initial Workout For Monday

EVANS CITY IS FIRST OPPONENT

The football fever will commence to rise throughout the East New Castle district, starting Monday, when Coach Frank Nocera, sends the Shenango high candidates thru their initial workout of the season, in preparation for the opening game with Evans City, September 11.

Coach Nocera, was recently elected as top man in athletics at the East New Castle institution.

Nocera, was on the Slippery Rock squad for four years, playing on the regular eleven for two years. He was a member of the 1933 undefeated team. After graduation, the south side young men was elected as a teacher at the East New Castle institution. During his spare moments he helped Phelps, last year's coach, to weave one of the strongest teams in Class B circles. The 1935 gridiron team won five games, tied 1, and lost only twice. His personality won for him a number of friends at Shenango high.

Will Wash Hands

If hard work means anything, "Hank" is sure to be a success as he is a slugger all the way through. He lives at 306 East Long avenue. Coach Nocera announced this morning that the preliminary training period starts on Monday. He faces a difficult task this season, as there are but two regulars left from last years team. Jim Irwin, end, and "Fat" Kirkwood, a 190 pound lad, are Nocera's only two veterans. Nine regulars were lost thru graduation in June.

Nocera has already looked over some of his material. Some of the boys who will carry the colors of the Shenango school this fall included: Nick Alfreda, Jones, Thomas, Tanner, Phelps, Walters, Lisko, H. Arnold, Pitzer, Collingwood, Curry.

The Blue and Gold eleven will make its grid debut September 11, when Shenango opposed Evans City, at Evans City; Glassport is the second opponent to be played away from the home soil.

Nocera is well known in sports circle here as he played with some of the fastest basketball teams in the city. His host of friends wish him a carload of luck in his new adventure.

Little Ruse Worked Pickpocket Captured

(International News Service)

CINCINNATI, O.—Capture of two men, believed responsible for a series of robberies of sleepers in Cincinnati parks was brought about recently by a wily detective who played the part of a drunk as a ruse.

Detective Elmer Lawrence and William Rathman, assigned to park duty, saw two men picking the pockets of a sleeper, but before an arrest could be affected, the men fled upon seeing the police cruiser.

Circling the park, Lawrence emerged from the car, "staggered" over to a lamp post and feigned intoxication.

As desired the pickpockets approached and asked the detective for a match. As one of the pair reached into Lawrence's pocket the detective "sobered up" and placed the pickpocket under arrest. His companion fled.

Stock Market Weaker Today

Steels, Motor And Rails Lead In Slight Drop In Market Today

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Stocks continued weak today, after slumping one to more than three points in the first hour. Steels, motors, rails and a few thin blue-chip issues were hardest hit.

Allied Chemical and Westinghouse Electric each dropped more than three points and J. I. Case nearly as much.

Chrysler fell about three points, General Motors a point, and lower-priced issues eased fractionally.

Steels were heavily pounded, with Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Bethlehem tumbling more than two points and U. S. Steel more than a point.

Widest declines in the carrier division were incurred by Atchison, off more than two, and N. Y. Central and Southern each off more than one.

Coppers, oils and utilities all were well under previous closing levels.

Bonds were hard hit, dropping as much as five points. Grains were lower, but cotton maintained a steady tone.

CAMP RUN PICNIC

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 21.—Of the activities of the Camp Run United Presbyterian church, one of the most enjoyable took place at the church on Tuesday when members and friends assembled for their annual Sunday school picnic.

The 125 attending did not hesitate in being seated at long tables where quantities of tempting picnic foods disappeared with alacrity. The ladies of the church served the dinner.

No picnic would be complete without a ball game and this one was no exception. A sport csommittee had prepared a splendid program of contests and races for the different age groups and the winners were awarded very nice prizes.

RICE REUNION

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 21.—The annual reunion of the descendants of the late Samuel B. and Caroline Rice will be held on Saturday afternoon and evening at Burr's Park, near Evans City. A picnic supper will be featured.

THE TUTTS

ity singing led by Mrs. Danny Nirella, of Pittsburgh, Pa.. At 2:45 the invocation will be delivered by Rev. Fr. Edward Szelong, pastor of the Church of the Madonna of New Castle. On the platform will be three other clergymen, Rabbi Norman Diamond of New Castle and Bishop E. L. Madison, a colored clergyman of Pittsburgh. Rev. Henry Shilling, pastor of the First M. E. of West Middlesex will be on the platform and will deliver the benediction.

Shortly before three o'clock M. Harvey Taylor, state chairman of the Republican party will be introduced and will in turn introduce Governor Landon. This will occur promptly at three o'clock. Governor Landon will speak from three until three thurty eastern standard time and following his address the crowd will sing the national anthem and the benediction will follow.

Plenty Of Room

The arrangements at West Middlesex are completed. The speaking stand and the accompanying press stand are ready for occupancy, eighty water fountains have been installed on the grounds, there will be a score or more of refreshment stands and parking space for 25,000 automobiles. No one need feel that he cannot see and hear perfectly as the committee in charge has installed powerful amplifiers that will carry the sound clearly for a mile.

Following the address it is thought Landon will spend some time in West Middlesex visiting his old nurse Mrs. Mary Baird and perhaps one or two other places. He will then be brought to New Castle by the motor escort where he will be taken to The Castleton Hotel.

At five thirty he will confer with the publishers of newspapers in the 26 western counties. At seven o'clock he will appear at the testimonial dinner to be held in The Cathedral and will speak briefly. The arrangements for this dinner were announced today by Chairman Roger W. Rowland of the county committee and the local arrangements.

Invocation By McIlvaine

The dinner starts at seven o'clock and will be served by the women of the Wimodausis. Dr. John J. McIlvaine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will deliver the invocation and Chairman Roger W. Rowland will introduce the toastmaster who will be announced later. Mayor Charles E. McGrath will welcome the distinguished gathering and Samuel Lewis will direct the community singing. A number of the distinguished guests will be introduc and a few of them will speak briefly. The chief speech will be by Governor Landon.

Many Notables Arriving.

As the city prepared for the influx of distinguished guests on the morrow some interesting sidelights were observed.

Newspaper men were arriving all day long from points east and west. Among the early arrivals were Allan Davis, political writer of the Philadelphia Bulletin, and Jay Haydn, Washington correspondent of the Detroit News.

Every writer wants to see Bill Donaldson, who in private life is the superintendent of the press gallery in the House of Representatives in Washington. He has charge of the physical facilties of the press. He handled the notification in Topeka, the Democratic convention in Philadelphio and does this same work for all the important political gatherings. He is here in a non-political capacity. And is he busy?

Robert M. Owthwaite, the lanky Kansan who has general supervision of the arrangements for the national committee. He has been working about 21 hours per day for a week on the job and looks fresh as a daisy. He is not a native Kansan but went to Topeka about five years ago from Philadelphia.

Local Headquarters Ready.

The Western Union has made elaborate arrangements for the coverage of the rally. T. W. Carroll, general manager of the eastern division, is here, as is L. A. Shew, district superintendent of Pittsburgh. With them are a number of executives and a corps of 36 operators who will send the stories from West Middlesex. The Western Union has spread themselves to cover the party from every angle. The Postal Telegraph has also installed extra facilities but not as elaborate as the Western Union.

The lobby of the Castleton hotel is a mass of flags and bunting. The store room on the northwestern corner of the building is being converted into press and wire headquarters and an auxiliary refreshment room. Thomas M. Boyle, the manager, and George Z. Miller, the assistant, are busy but with their facilities and staff have had no difficulties. Every inch of available space in the hotel is taken.

The Lawrence county headquarters in the Castle club have been exceptionally busy. The banquet arrangements have been handled there and Chairman Milton A. Bickett has been assisted by a staff consisting of Joseph Hartland, F. S. Brenneman, R. S. McCaslin, Jr., Ed Reed and several rather charming looking young ladies.

City Decorated.

The decorations throughout the city are through the courtesy of the Republican Men of Pennsylvania. The boys decided that the job ought to be done and they did it with speed and efficiency. The huge sunflowers which peek down at you were the idea of Tom Cunningham, the chairman of the decorations committee.

The merchants have shown a fine spirit of cooperation in the matter of showing off the city to the visiting world. Windows have been polished and redecorated with merchandise and the visitor who walks or rides down Washington street is going to get the idea that New Castle is rather pleased at its prominence in this national opening of the Republican campaign.

Local committees that are handling the arrangements for the Landon dinner and the activities of Governor Landon's visit here were announced today by Chairman Roger W. Rowland.

The committee on general arrangements follows: Chairman, M. A. Bickett, J. H. Hartland, R. C. McCaslin, Jr., C. B. White, Rev. F. S. Brenneman, J. P. Leslie Brindle, Samuel Taylor, Walter W. Duff, P. K. Fike, H. A. Donaldson, Frank Augustine, A. A. Allmon, B. J. Biondi, Miss Martha Bigley, W. A. Brown, George H. Bolinger, Phil Cox, W. F. Campbell, John E. Fee, Roy W. Hazen.

Charles E. McGrath, George W. Muse, E. D. Pritchard, John W. Pattison, Charles Ross, E. O. Reed, Rev. E. R. Szelong, Samuel Taylor, Clyde M. Whittaker, Guy J. Wadlinger, C. H. Young, Phil Greer, Dr. Frederick Taylor, J. C. Camp.

Women's Committee. Chairman, Mrs. C. S. Hart, chairman of Reception, Mrs. C. H. Johnson, Mrs. Eva Woods, Miss Martha Bigley, Mrs. Fred L. Rentz, Mrs. Nell Hogue, Mrs. F. S. Brenneman, Mrs. Filmore Campbell, Mrs. R. C. McCaslin, Jr., Mrs. Orville Brown, Mrs. Bessie Pitzer, Mrs. John Jackson, Mrs. Joseph Hartland, Mrs. Howard Magill, Mrs. H. C. Heck, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Winifred Westlake, Mrs. Elmer Suber, Mrs. George Stickle, Mrs. Harry Elder, Mrs. Andrew Venditto, Mrs. James Goodchild, Mrs. Harry Cranmer, Mrs. George Miles, Mrs. Rose Mort, Mrs. Rose Fazzone, Mrs. Lucie Holliday, Mrs. J. Leon Fink, Mrs. Earl Wimer, Mrs. Winifred Westlake, Mrs. Walter DeArment, Mrs. Dennis Donegan, Mrs. Jack Dunlap, Mrs. Harry C. Urmson, Mrs. Frederick Roberts, Mrs. Bart Richards.

Dinner Committee, Chairman, M. A. Bickett, R. C. McCaslin, Jr., C. B. Houk, J. H. Hartland, George W. Muse, F. S. Brenneman, George H. Bolinger, Phil Campbell, Roy Hazen, John W. Pattison, Guy J. Wadlinger, W. W. Duff.

Publicity, Chairman, Bart Richards, A. I. Donnan, William Kegel.

Saturday night will be occupied by conferences between Governor Landon and prominent leaders of Pennsylvania and other eastern states. Sunday morning Governor Landon will do nothing political. He will attend church services in West Middlesex and will visit friends in the town and in Greenville. Sunday afternoon he returns to New Castle where he spends the night. On Monday morning he leaves at nine o'clock over the Pennsylvania railroad He will make a brief speech from the platform before he leaves.

Three cars have been provided for the use of the personal party accompanying Governor Landon. Two phaetons, one a blue and the other a tan, and a third car, a closed job for emergency purposes. The cars are through the courtesy of the Lawrence Automobile company and the General Motors.

Mrs. Worthington Scranton, national committeewoman for Pennsylvania arrived in the Castleton this morning. As she registered she enthused over the decorations on the streets. "They're lovely" said she. "New Castle is certainly rising to the occasion and I want to congratulate the city for its smart appearance."

Largest Sunflower

The largest sunflower in the state today is on Johnson building. It is a painted sunflower on a canvas 24x24 feet. Tonight and Saturday night it will be illuminated by a huge flood light.

Traffic conditions between here and West Middlesex have been puzzling the officials in charge of the Landon Day celebration. That is they were until a few days ago when Jack Pierce got into the city. Pierce is a former member of the general assembly and is from Titusville. He was made chairman of the traffic committee and immediately got in touch with Lieutenant Oldham of the State Highway patrol and the sheriffs of the various counties.

Mr. Pierce refuses to take credit for the arrangements which seem to be well done. He passes the palm over to Lieutenant Oldham and the sheriffs. There is credit enough for all however.

A variety of diversions, including music, held the attention of the group throughout the evening until a late hour when the group, numbering 50, gathered about a glowing bonfire and enjoyed their "feed". Mr. Barnhart vied with everyone that he could consume the most corn and he certainly won, being the first to start eating and the last to finish.

The grangers enjoyed the affair so much that they made definite plans to hold another one before the sweet corn crop is done, the date being named in the near future.

French Radicals Defy Neutrality

Leaders Declare France Cannot Remain Neutral In Spain

STRIKE THREATS BACK STAND NOW

By LINDESAY PARROTT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Aug. 21.—Radical party workmen today made their first gesture of defiance against the neutrality attempts of the French government, backing up with deeds and threatened strikes the repeated statements of their leaders that France cannot remain neutral in the Spanish civil war.

Delegates from all metal factories working for the arm industry met early this morning at the House of Syndicates on the outskirts of Paris in a meeting officially recognized by the labor federation with the announcement:

"Many of our comrades working in the arms industry are complaining of a boycott against the Madrid government.

"The unions are prepared to recognize the situation."

Resolutions at the meeting are a plain indication that the workmen of the arms industry are fully prepared to strike unless the government guarantees that no French arms go to the Spanish rebels.

At the same time a survey revealed that, in spite of new social laws and collective contracts, an average of a dozen new strikes a day are breaking out in France.

The river Seine has just been reopened after a strike of bargemen, who blocked all traffic for two days by forming a barricade with their boats near Nanterre.

Meanwhile other strikes are coming daily from such varied sources as threshers and textile designers. The survey shows that 29 new strikes have been declared in the last week, in many of which workmen of key industries are refusing to permit the manufacture of goods that might usefully be exported to the Spanish rebels.

The leftist French government's leanings were once more demonstrated today when Air Minister Pierre Cot authorized employes at the Bloch airplane factory to send two crafts already at the Villa-Coublay airdrome to loyalist forces to Spain. The planes had been sold to France, but the workers will be allowed to pay for them by overtime work.

The Bloch employes, according to Le Jour, have notified the management that they will take over the plant after working hours to make more planes for the Spanish government.

Electrical Storm Fascinates Guest From California

Unheard Of In California; Thrilled With Storm Here

Magnificent! Wonderful! were the exclamations shouted by Mrs. Ella Hoover Brown of El Monte, Calif., as she stood in the midst of a crowd at the dance pavilion Wednesday at Cascade park, completely envolved and fascinated with the electrical storm experienced here.

Never has she seen a storm like it, and she was undoubtedly the most excited person on the park grounds. This is her first visit in New Castle in 27 years, and her hosts, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hoover, the former a brother, were entertaining a party of friends in her honor at the park when the storm came upon them.

"Such a freak storm is not heard of in California," Mrs. Brown states. The summers are very even in climate and the winter months is the only time they have a light, soft rain and nothing that amounts to much.

She will leave Tuesday for her California home, following a month's visit here, taking back an interesting tale of "being caught in the rain".

Harbor Man Is Injured

While doing some repair work Louis Zeigler, Harbor, suffered a painful injury to his back, the result of a fall from a porch several days ago. He is confined to bed.

Contrary to common belief, bees do not destroy grapes, according to the bureau of entomology. The bees are attracted by juice after the grapes have been punctured by birds, scientists say.

Governor Olson Battling Death In Mayo Hospital

Danger Of Peritonitis Is Grave In Abdominal Ailment Of Minnesota Executive

(International News Service)

ROCHESTER, Minn., Aug. 21.—"I guess we'll have to arrange to put some microphones in this room for the campaign," Gov. Floyd B. Olson remarked to his secretary today as Mayo Clinic physicians considered a second blood transfusion for the slowly sinking Minnesota governor.

Olson, the Farmer-Labor party's candidate for United States Senate, is suffering from an abdominal ailment.

Although in almost constant pain, the governor is cheerful and hopeful over the outcome of his illness.

The governor is having great difficulty assimilating nourishment—administered intravenously — physicians revealed. His strength is ebbing and the danger of peritonitis is grave.

Two Horses Hung During Big Storm

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa.—Two horses, harnessed to a hay wagon, were hanged here during the recent tornado-like storm.

The owner, Frank Newcomer, had driven to the second floor of a barn with the load of hay when the storm broke in all its fury.

Hurriedly attempting to unload the grain, Newcomer was still on top of the wagon when the wind blew the large building from its foundation.

The horses hung suspended in mid-air as part of the second floor gave way under the force of the gale.

Although the farmer was able to leap to safety, the horses could not be moved. They slowly strangled to death from the harness.
